Af, climate & Covid focus of Modi-Biden talks

PM says Quad will be a force for global good

PM Narendra Modi with US President Joe Biden at the White House on Friday | PTI

PUSHKAR BANAKAR @New Delhi

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi and US President Joe Biden on Friday held their first bilateral meeting in Washington where they agreed to fight challenges like Covid and climate change together while strengthening mutual ties.

In his opening remarks, Biden recalled his Mumbai visit in his capacity of US vice-president and said that ties between the US and India are destined to grow. "We must take on challenges like Covid and climate change together," he said. Both invoked Mahatma Gandhi and his values of non-violence. Biden is the third US President since 2014 to hold a bilateral meeting with Modi.

Modi said Biden's presidency will sow the seeds for better bilateral ties and also for all democracies across the world. "You have taken unique initiatives since you assumed office with regard to Covid, climate change and Quad. We will work together on these issues, which will benefit not only our countries but the entire world," Modi told his host.

Modi said technology would be a significant player in the coming decade across the world. "Technology will be used for betterment of humanity and will provide tremendous opportunities," he said and added that trade will also continue to play an important part in bilateral relations.

In the delegation-level talks, the two leaders discussed cooperation in various sectors like trade, defence and security, including matters of regional and global importance, like the Afghan situation.

At the Quad summit that followed, Modi said its vaccine initiative would greatly help the countries of the Indo-Pacific. Modi, along with Biden, Australian Prime Minister Scott Morrison and Japanese Prime Minister Yoshihide Suga, participated in the first-ever in-person Quad leaders' summit in New York. "Be it Covid, security or technology, the Quad will work together and will be a force for global good," Modi said.

Biden announced Quad scholarships where 25 students from each member country would be able to pursue master's degrees in prestigious US universities. Morrison said Australia believes in a free and open Indo-Pacific while Suga pressed the US to lift restrictions on the import of Japanese products like rice.

Ganglord shot dead in Delhi courtroom

GAYATHRI MANI @ New Delhi

IN a shocking incident of security lapse, Delhi's most wanted gangster Jitender Maan alias Gogi was shot dead by his rival gang inside a local courtroom in the presence of a judge on Friday afternoon, where he was brought to appear in a criminal trial by the Delhi Police.

Two assailants from the rival Tillu Tajpuria gang were already present in the courtroom in lawyers' robes. As Gogi, shepherded by the counter intelligence team and the special cell of the northern range of the Delhi Police, entered courtroom number 207 of the Rohini Court Complex, the attackers whipped out their .30 bore pistols and opened fire, killing him on spot. Sources said he received five-six bullets. Police personnel in the room then neutralised the assailants.

"All three persons were later declared brought dead in the hospital," said the police.

Sources said the special cell of the police had a tip-off about the shootout, but did not have specific input that the assailants would enter the court dressed as lawyers. Sources said the attackers entered the court from Gate number 4 where no security check happens.

BIOLOGY WILL NOW BE A PART OF ENGG COURSE

Subject introduced after doctors and engineers worked together during the pandemic

PEARL MARIA DSOUZA @Bengaluru

ALL engineering colleges under Visvesvaraya Technological University (VTU) will offer 'Biology for Engineers' as a subject from this year. It will be part of the 'ability enhancement courses' under the National Education Policy (NEP). Explaining the new addition to all engineering courses from this year, VTU Vice-Chancellor Karisiddappa told TNIE that in the backdrop of Covid-19, engineers were seen working closely with doctors to design medical equipment, using advanced technology such as artificial neural, highlighting the need for the concept of biology in engineering courses.

The curriculum is being drawn up, and the subject will be introduced for second year students too, so it helps those who want to gain lateral entry into engineering. This will include the study of cells and blood flow, and there is also a need to understand the nervous system while working with artificial neural networks.

Apart from 'Biology for Engineers' as an ability enhancement course, Block Chain Technology and Data Analysis and Simulations are also set to be added to the curriculum, said Karisiddappa. The introduction of Biology will be considered the first iteration policy, with the aim to make the education system autonomous. Colleges should think of opening new departments which are considered multi-disciplinary, he added.

66 colleges to provide degree in basic science

Engineering colleges will leverage their teaching capabilities – quality of teachers, availability of labs and classrooms – to introduce basic science courses. Physics, Chemistry and Maths will now be taught by Engineering course teachers, Vice-Chancellor Karisiddappa told TNIE. He said colleges which are mostly private, aided and autonomous, were chosen based on their existing facilities, faculty members and being accredited by the National Board of Accreditation (NBA) and NAAC. Merging campuses to bring in faculty from a science college from the same city or society (that runs the engineering college) will be allowed. The faculty can be used from science colleges where there is lower work-load. This also comes in the backdrop of more than 50 per cent vacancy in VTU admissions. Karisiddappa said the reason to start the course was use of engineering faculty to teach Physics, Chemistry and Math; and use of engineering college labs and facilities.

Water supply to be disrupted tomorrow

BENGALURU: Water supply is likely to be disrupted across Bengaluru on Sunday between 11 am and 1 pm. The disruption will be due to the replacement work of the 220 KV Vrushabhavati line at Tataguni Bangalore Water Supply & Sewerage Board (BWSSB) 220 KV receiving station. The pumping systems at TK Halli, Harohalli and Tataguni will not be functioning due to the work that will be carried out, according to the BWSSB release.

PEDESTRIANISATION PROJECT

Church St project to be replicated on 3 more roads

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

AFTER receiving a lot of positive feedback on Church Street's pedestrianisation project, the Department of Urban and Land Transport (DULT) is now working on replicating a similar project on three more roads and conduct a Clean Air Street Testbed on other four city roads.

DULT on Friday released the Clean Air Street Testbed Initiative along with 'Church Street First-impact Assessment of Pedestrianising an Urban Street in Terms of Quality of Life Report', prepared by the Indian Institute of Science (IISc). Another report titled, 'Church Street First-Clean Air Street Testbed Report', prepared by Urbanmorph, too was launched.

V Manjula, DULT Commissioner on the sidelines of releasing the report told TNIE, that the department recently launched a research and innovation policy under which it has been decided to take up similar testbeds on four more streets. The list is, however, yet to be finalised. A pedestrian road works similar to Church Street, are being carried out at Malleswaram 8th Cross, Jayanagar 10th Main and Gandhi Bazaar. A testbed is a concept where many startups come up with different technologies, ideas, or projects, and wait for feedback before implementing or launching them in the market. Ashish Verma, Associate Professor, Transportation Systems Engineering, Department of Civil Engineering, IISc, said, the study report not only shows the scientific evaluations, but it also throws light on the quality of life. The report shows clear improvement in air quality on "pedestrianised weekends", in terms of PM10 and PM2.5 concentrations. Assessing the pedestrian footfalls, from Nov 2020 to Feb 2021, the average daily footfall on Church Street increased by 92 per cent.

A view of the redone Church Street

> The survey also showed that 83 per cent of visitors and 81 per cent of shop owners were satisfied with the improvement in air quality after pedestrianisation

ASHA and Anganwadi workers stage a protest demanding minimum wage and employee benefits on Friday | Vinod Kumar.T

Govt insensitive to workers' plight, say ASHA, Anganwadi workers

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

AS part of the all-India strike, Accredited Social Health Activists (ASHA), Anganwadi, mid-day meal and other scheme workers staged a protest in different locations in Bengaluru on Friday, seeking minimum wage and employee benefits.

A delegation of ASHA workers, who protested at Freedom Park, submitted a memorandum listing out 17 demands, and the difficulties they were facing, to Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai's office.

They wanted the government to notify all scheme workers who were deputed on Covid duty as frontline workers, ensure availability of protective gear, Rs 50 lakh insurance cover for those who died on duty, Covid medical cover for their families, additional risk allowance of Rs 10,000 per month and payment of pending dues among others.

The memorandum also raised the issue of poor working conditions, long duty hours, being denied the announced Rs 50 lakh compensation to the family of the deceased and cut in budget leading to lack of regular monthly remuneration.

"The National Digital Health Mission (NDHM) and the proposals of NITI Ayog in privatising and commercialising health services, the new education policy, and involving corporates in ICDS and MDMS will lead to the dismantling of these schemes. The implementation of the three farm acts and the Essential Commodities Act will be the death knell of the schemes like ICDS and MDMS that ensure food security," they complained, accusing the NDA government of being insensitive to the plight of workers.

They asked for free and universal vaccination for all frontline workers, and frequent and free Covid-19 testing for them as well.

Mechanism in place for voter list issues, HC told

ENS @Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court on Friday disposed a public interest litigation filed by Whitefield Rising, a citizen group, highlighting a grievance that voters have not been included in the voters' list in Bengaluru.

Stating that any aggrieved person does have a remedy under the Representation of the People Act and Registration of Electors Rules, or can file a writ petition, a division bench of Acting Chief Justice Satish Chandra Sharma and Justice Sachin Shankar Magadum directed the authorities concerned to adhere to the provisions of the Act and Rules, and the time frame provided.

The counsel of the Election Commission of India (ECI) drew the court's attention to the Act and the Rules for the electoral list. He also submitted that a detailed mechanism was in place for restoration and deletion of names from the constituency. It was also said that the process was slow, but now it is in place with ECI issuing communications on Sept 13 and 14, 2021, regarding additions and deletions of names from the electoral list.

Tourists rue slow pace of road works at Nandi Hills

BOSKY KHANNA @ Bengaluru

THE snail-paced road works taken up by the Public Works Department (PWD) and the Chikkaballapur district administration at Nandi Hills has not just affected tourism, but has also made commute difficult.

After a landslide was reported in Brahmagiri Hills, Rangappa Circle last month, the district administration had laid a temporary road to facilitate travel. "Business has been badly affected. Anyway, the pandemic took a toll on tourism. The activities were slowly picking up, but now, due to the closure of roads, all such activities came to a halt," said Raju, a resort and hotel owner in Nandi Hills. Chikkaballapur Deputy Commissioner R Latha said that the pace of work is slow because a lot of caution is being exercised.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

25th September: What will we find when we finally travel to the stars? For many centuries, perhaps for thousands of years, human beings have dreamt of voyaging to the stars and meeting the gods - or God. Some philosophers, though, think that, in a manner of speaking, when we finally arrive at distant worlds, we will meet - ourselves!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Your interest in exotic places and foreign cultures will soon inspire you to plan an overseas break. Accept opportunities which come your way, and in the meantime focus your energy on co-operation in all routine affairs: the way to prepare the ground for adventure is to deal with the details first.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Put extra effort into domestic and routine affairs, and get escalating chores under control. But do take advantage of spreading social opportunities. There may not be much to worry you, so be sure to fulfil previous engagements and, if time permits, accept new invitations.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
Make an early start, especially if you've vital correspondence to catch up with or short journeys to make. You may hear some interesting news about a relative or close companion, and must rearrange your plans accordingly. By the way, there is much to be done before partners are ready to see your point of view.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
If necessary, spend some time sorting out your financial affairs and making plans for future investments and purchases. Resolving a complex relationship may be rather hard work, but will be well worth the effort in the long run. Strangely, in the short term, domestic pressures will ease.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
You may have cause to be out and about on family business, perhaps making profitable arrangements. The Moon, though, points to sharp swings in mood as time progresses. I am afraid that is unavoidable, but then you'll also have the chance to duck out of a tedious responsibility.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
This should be a lively period, but you'll be able to take events at your own pace. If you've been in a rather solitary mood, you may now begin to feel more active, outgoing and sociable. And that has to be good news, especially if you are determined to right an old wrong.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Balance professional demands with family commitments. Work hard and play hard is the message, though perhaps an unexpected one for your sign. You're in the mood for a flutter, and may be on a winning streak. But, there could be twelve weeks of wrangling before your goals are finally reached.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
It's a time to think about your ideals and vision of the future, and plans formulated now could prove to have fascinating effects when implemented. Certainly, friends and associates will be pleasantly surprised by your change of approach.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Get your cash-flow under control now, otherwise you will find money draining away in a trickle that is in danger of becoming a flood. You are under broadly helpful influences if travel plans are under way, although many short journeys are more likely than one long one.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Your personal interests may take second place today, which is not necessarily a bad thing. Use the opportunity to see what you can learn from colleagues, and take a leaf out of someone else's book as far as emotional issues are concerned. After all, if they're doing it right, you have something to learn.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
An active time coping with mundane tasks should prepare you adequately for future responsibilities. Romantic trends are now prospering from Venus' positive position, and you may make extra time for unexpected socialising. Watch out for hidden costs, including emotional ones, though.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Entertainments and enjoyable encounters may have to be delayed if working responsibilities and domestic chores are not settled soon. Above all, keep others well informed of your plans and progress. If there was ever a time to tell partners what you're doing, this is it.

It will be biz as usual for cinemas, pubs from Oct

10pm to 5am night curfew stays; Classes 6-12 to function normally

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

COME Friday, and cinema halls, multiplexes, auditoriums and Rangamandiras can go houseful, with the government easing restrictions and allowing 100 per cent occupancy. Pubs will also be allowed to function normally from October 3.

With Covid cases declining, and the day positivity rate dipping below 1% in most places, 100% occupancy will be allowed in theatres. If the day positivity rate is more than 1%, occupancy will be only 50%.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, who headed the Covid review meeting on Friday, said there were riders to these restrictions. Only those who have received one dose of vaccine will be allowed, while pregnant women and children will be barred. However, night curfew will be in place from 10pm to 5am.

Bommai's announcement comes after he and his cabinet ministers received requests from the film exhibitors' community, seeking full occupancy in theatres. The film industry, which has kept many big banner films like 'Kotigobba', 'Salaga' and others on hold because of the 50 per cent rule, is expected to release the films over the next few weeks. After Saraswati theatre closed in Mysuru, there is concern that more could shut down permanently.

From October 1, 100% occupancy will be allowed in cinemas in the districts where the positivity rate is less than 1% and 50% occupancy if the positivity rate is more than 1% – Basavaraj Bommai, Chief Minister

Film Exhibitors' Chairman K V Chandrashekar said, "This does not mean that all 630 theatres will open from tomorrow, 250-300 theatres which are shut might take six to nine months to open." Concerns were raised whether it is advisable to keep people in a closed space for three hours, as in a cinema hall, but according to community health expert Dr Edmond Fernandes, "It is fine, provided there is mandatory wearing of masks."

Restrictions have also been eased for schools, which will function normally for five days a week with 100% attendance in Classes 6-12.

Covid guidelines for Dasara festivities would be issued separately.

Bommai said that vigil on the Maharashtra and Kerala borders would be intensified. He said special efforts for vaccination would be taken in the districts of Yadgir, Raichur, Kalaburagi and Mysuru.

FOUR DISTS TOUCH 99% RECOVERY RATE

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

FOUR districts in Karnataka — Bagalkot, Chitradurga, Raichur and Yadgir — clocked 99% recovery rate, which is higher than the state's average of 98%. As on September 23, the district with the highest recovery rate was Yadgir, with 99.24%, followed by Raichur with 99.16%, Chitradurga with 99.09%, and Bagalkot with 99.03%, according to State War Room data.

The number of positive cases recorded in these districts is low too. Yadgir reported two cases, Bagalkot four cases, Raichur five cases and Chitradurga 41 positive cases. Yadgir has three active cases, Bagalkot 10 cases, Raichur has 7 and Chitradurga has 129 active cases.

The districts reported lower positivity rate in the past seven days too. While the state average is 0.65%, Haveri has the lowest rate at 0.02%, followed by Yadgir, Bagalkot and Raichur at 0.04% and Chitradurga at 0.42%.

On the high recovery rate, Yadgir DHO Dr Indumathi said, "The cases were not too severe in our district. Surveillance was good, as and when positive cases were found, we would trace the cases and identify primary and secondary contacts and quarantine them immediately. Those who needed hospitalisation were immediately admitted. Since the pandemic broke out, we've had 207 Covid deaths, but it didn't get worse as we were tracking cases early. The district is small, hence not many cases were reported."

Experts point out that the number of discharges is higher than positive cases, which is contributing to higher recovery rate. "With a reduction in cases and low burden on healthcare, people testing positive are getting necessary care and recovering fast. Vaccination has also helped recovery, as people are not reaching the severe infection stage. Most of the hospital admissions are those who are doubly vaccinated, and have mild to moderate symptoms," said Dr Anoop Amarnath, member of the Critical Care Support Team.

Meanwhile, case Fatality Rate in these districts is low too. Chitradurga has 0.56%, Yadgir 0.75%, Raichur 0.83% and Bagalkot 0.94%, while the average CFR of the state is 1.27%.

COVID BYTES

Karnataka sees dip in daily new Covid-19 cases

BENGALURU: Karnataka on Friday saw a slight dip in fresh Covid cases with 789 additions. Between September 21 and 23, the number of daily new cases was hovering between 813-847 cases. The total number of cases in the state now stands at 29,71,833. The positivity rate too has been consistently declining. On September 1, the state's positivity rate was 6.75% which dropped to 6.56% on September 11, and 6.39% on September 20. There was a drop on September 21 to 6.38% , followed by a reduction to 6.33% on Friday. Karnataka saw 1,050 discharges and 23 deaths on Friday.

Severe viral fever among kids a new worry for docs in Hubballi

ARUNKUMAR HURALIMATH
@ Hubballi

AN increasing number of viral fever cases and their severity has been worrying doctors in Hubballi. In the past two months, around 250 children were admitted to KIMS Hospital with severe symptoms.

During the monsoon, many children and adults catch viral fever, which is cured with regular medication, but this year, the severity has increased and breathing difficulties due to phlegm and cough are seen more among children.

A senior doctor at KIMS Hospital said they had admitted 163 children in August, and around 90 children this month, most of them due to severe infection in their lungs. No one died due to the viral infection, but the hospital reported deaths among children with comorbidities.

Pediatrician at KIMS Dr Prakash Wari said, "The exact reason is not known. However, studies have shown that a frequently changing environment and lack of antibodies is causing severity. Due to Covid and lockdown, many children and feeding mothers have not been exposed to the outdoors, which resulted in a lack of antibodies. This might also be one of the reasons."

INS Vikrant: The Atmanirbhar Aircraft Carrier

GIRISH LINGANNA

No other sector in the country has taken up 'Make in India' and 'Atmanirbhar Bharat' initiatives as seriously as the Indian Defence Sector. The best example is the Indian Navy's new Aircraft Carrier, INS Vikrant -- the first to emerge from the Cochin Shipyard.

The aircraft carrier, waiting to be commissioned by late 2021 or early 2022, has already successfully completed its first sea trials.

The name Vikrant means 'courageous' and the aircraft carrier weighs roughly 40,000 tons. It is designed to carry about 30 aircraft and is built at a cost of about Rs 23,000 crore. The ship has involved many private firms in developing it, making the country one among the five elite nations which has the capacity to build its own warship.

The Ministry of Defence recently stated that the INS Vikrant project is a true example of Atmanirbhar Bharat (self-reliant India) with 75 per cent of the material and equipment onboard being indigenous.

This includes the raw material, 23,000 tonnes of steel, 2,500 km of electrical cables, 150 km of pipes and 2,000 valves, as well as finished products such as anchor capstans, rigid hull boats, galley equipment, air conditioning and refrigeration plants, steering gear and over 150 pumps and motors, communication equipment and the ship's combat network systems.

Steel was supplied by Steel Authority of India, which along with DRDO developed and manufactured the Indigenous DMR 249 A and B warship grade steel. According to the naval officials, the amount of steel used in this ship can be used to build three Eiffel towers.

The other Indian companies, which have contributed to the construction of this warship include Larsen and Toubro, which has provided the main switch gear, steering gear and the watertight hatches. Its air conditioning and refrigeration is manufactured by Kirloskar group. The cables were provided by Nicco Engineering. The carrier's Integrated Platform Management system was designed by the state-owned Bharath Heavy Electricals. The gear boxes have been jointly developed by Elecon Engineering, a company based in Gujarat, and Germany's Renk AG.

Though the investment to manufacture the ship was about Rs 23,000 crore, the Navy has calculated that nearly 80-85 per cent has already been ploughed back into the Indian economy. The project has managed to create direct employment for 2000 people and indirect employment to 40,000 persons.

The ship with 14 decks measures 262 meters in length and has a width of 62 meters. It is wide enough on par with INS Vikramaditya.

The ship, designed by the experts from the Indian Navy's directorate of Naval Designs, is considered as 'Blue Water Navy', which means the ship has a capacity to project a Nation's strength and power across the high seas.

This is the first warship in India with gender-sensitive accommodation spaces for women officers.

The ship, with a high degree of automation for machinery operation, ship navigation and survivability, has been designed to accommodate an assortment of fixed-wing and rotary aircraft. It can carry a total of 40–42 helicopters in war time and in peace time it would carry 30 aircraft.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

This aircraft carrier has opened new avenues for the defence sector manufacturers, new collaborations, and new research to put India on a global map of defence manufacturers and exporters.

AIRCRAFT AND ARMAMENT

Considered by the Navy as the most potent sea-based asset, the IAC (As the navy calls it) will operate the Russian made fighter aircrafts MiG- 29K and Kamov- 31 Air Early warning Helicopters. It will also operate the MH-60R, the American made helicopters and Advanced Light Helicopters, manufactured by Bengaluru based Hindustan Aeronautics Ltd.

The warship will offer an incomparable military instrument with its ability to project air power over long distances, including Air Interdiction, Anti- Surface Warfare, offensive and defensive Counter-Air, Airborne Anti -Submarine warfare and Airborne Early warning.

THE FUTURE

India is the second country in the world with two aircraft carriers in the world after Italy. The United States of America has the highest number of 11 Aircraft Carriers. China is closely increasing its numbers now with four aircraft carriers under development. The Indian Navy has been pressing for developing another major aircraft carrier, INS Vishal, a 65,000-tonne vessel, much bigger than IAC-1 and INS Vikramaditya. The Chief of Defence Staff has however not approved the project. But the ambitious project is likely to be a reality soon.

Tap water for 97.91L rural households by 2024

RDPR Minister K S Eshwarappa on Friday informed the Council that all villages in the state will get tap water connection by March 2024 under the Jal Jeevan Mission at an estimated cost of Rs 41,800 crore. Replying to JDS member K A Thippeswamy during the Question Hour, Eshwarappa said that there are 97.91 lakh rural households in the state of which 34.9 lakh (35.64%) have got tap water connection till date.

Three-day Global Investors Meet from Nov 2, 2022: Nirani

Large and Medium Industries Minister Murugesh Nirani said Karnataka will host a three-day Global Investors Meet in Bengaluru from November 2-4 next year to attract more investments and create more employment opportunities. He was replying to Congress MLA Priyank Kharge during Question Hour in the Assembly on Friday. "The Meet aims at attracting more investments and giving thrust to industrial growth. It will help increase the flow of domestic and foreign investments into the state and create more jobs. The dates, however, will be confirmed after consultations with the CM," Nirani stated.

Plans afoot to merge agri and horti varsities: Minister

Agriculture Minister BC Patil told the Council on Friday that agriculture and horticulture universities in the state would be merged or established in the same campus in the interest of the farming community. Replying to MLC Aravind Kumar Arali, Patil also informed that there is a proposal to set up an agriculture college in each district. "This proposal will become a reality once the financial condition of the state improves," the minister said. Over 50% of posts are vacant in existing varsities and it will be filled at the earliest as Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai has given his nod, he added.

No corruption at checkposts, says Sriramulu

Transport Minister B Sriramulu informed the Council that vacant posts in his department will be filled soon and a proposal in this regard has been sent to the Karnataka Public Service Commission (KPSC). He was replying to Congress Chief Whip in the Council Narayanaswamy, who had alleged that a few staffers at 15 inter-state checkposts were demanding bribe from vehicles entering the state. Narayanaswamy alleged that only eight permanent staff were deployed at these checkposts of the sanctioned 37 and the rest were outsourced. Strongly denying the charges, Sriramulu said that the government has granted 2,781 posts of which 1,252 are filled and 1,529 are vacant. On MLC Marithibbegowda's appeal to extend free bus pass facility---that is currently given to 1 lakh SC/ST students--- to all students belonging to economically weaker section, Sriramulu said, "It is not possible as the financial status of the department is in bad shape owing to Covid-19."

NEP by Indians, for Indians, insists Bommai

Reiterates state government firm on implementing it, no issue if Congress calls it RSS or Nagpur policy

'Decision on quota after panel submits report'

CM Basavaraj Bommai said the government will decide on providing OBC reservation under 2A category to the Panchamasali Lingayat community based on the report of the Karnataka Backward Classes Commission. He was replying to a question by BJP MLAs Basanagouda Patil Yatnal and Arvind Bellad. "The panel is gathering information on the education and employment status of the community. The Centre has recently given powers to states to grant reservations to backward communities. The government will take a decision once the report is submitted," Bommai said. Fifteen other communities had also demanded reservation under 2A category and the commission is studying that too, he added.

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Friday strongly defended his government's decision to implement the National Education Policy (NEP) in the state. "We will go ahead with its implementation even if they (Congress) call it RSS education policy," Bommai stressed, even as the issue led to an uproar in the Assembly on the last day of the 10-day legislature session that ended on Friday.

"We accept it. Yes, it is the RSS education policy. Nation, nationalism and RSS are the same," Bommai said, adding that the NEP has been discussed for three years. "The NEP is by Indians, for Indians. Your (Congress) party people are foreigners. So you want a foreign education policy. Macaulay's education system is of slavery... The NEP is an education system with self-respect. Hence, this change is required," Bommai said even as several Congress MLAs trooped into the well of the House expressing displeasure over not being given enough time to discuss matters of public importance and opposing implementation of the NEP.

While several Congress MLAs were raising slogans against the government and displaying placards terming the NEP an agenda of the RSS, Opposition leader Siddaramaiah said it should not be implemented at any cost as it pertains to the future of children. KPCC president D K Shivakumar joined Siddaramaiah by calling it the NEP 'Nagpur Education Policy'.

Not given time to discuss NEP, says Siddaramaiah

The Congress was demanding that the Speaker and the government extend the session to discuss important issues, including NEP. Siddaramaiah told Kageri that the session was not extended though he had written to him demanding that it be stretched by a week.

"I had requested time to speak on the NEP, but it was rejected for lack of time. It is unfortunate that the government did not give comprehensive answers to even the issues that were discussed," Siddaramaiah rued.

Siddu slams CM for calling farmers protest sponsored

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

LEADER of Opposition in the Assembly Siddaramaiah on Friday accused Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai of insulting farmers by terming their agitation against the new farm laws as a "sponsored protest." "CM insulted farmers by calling their protest a sponsored one. They will not understand the value of people's struggle," the Badami MLA said referring to Bommai's recent statement in the Assembly.

Speaking to reporters after the Congress' tonga jatha from the KPCC office to Vidhana Soudha to protest hike in fuel prices, the former chief minister said, "The Congress is the voice of the common man and we will continue to fight for their cause. Tamil Nadu has reduced tax on petrol and diesel. Let CM Basavaraj Bommai reduce the tax to the tune of Rs 10 in Karnataka. If our party was in power now, we would have reduced it."

Meanwhile, hitting out at the Congress, Revenue Minister R Ashoka termed the party's protest "a cheap politics". "The Congress has been losing elections and hence resorting to cheap politics like tonga rallies," he said. Ashoka also said that it was not right on part of the Congress to boycott the address by Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla. The minister said there are many instances of Lok Sabha Speaker addressing state assemblies.

LS Speaker raises concern over passage of Bills without debate

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

LOK Sabha Speaker Om Birla on Friday expressed concern over elected representatives not participating in debates and bills being passed amidst din. Addressing a joint session of the Karnataka Assembly on 'Democracy: Safeguarding Parliamentary Values', Birla said it is the duty and responsibility of lawmakers to participate in debates. The behaviour of elected representatives should be such that they uphold the values of the House, and outside, they should be role models for the people, he said.

"We need to uphold democratic values and give pro-people governance. The stature of Parliament and legislature value will increase if elected representatives enact laws which are in tune with the aspirations of the people. For this, lawmakers should discuss and debate so that there are no loopholes and the laws are strong. On the contrary, legislators and other elected representatives do not take part in discussions, which is a worrying trend," he noted.

Advising lawmakers not to waste the time of the House, he said they need to inculcate discipline and patience. A series of meetings were held in 1992, 1997 and 2001 in this regard, where the Speakers, Prime Ministers, Chief Ministers, Parliamentary Affairs Ministers and Opposition leaders had passed resolutions. The time has come again to think about it, he felt. The Lok Sabha Speaker, however, stressed that it does not mean there should be no room for opposition, debates or disagreements, which are part of a democracy. At the same time, members should not create ruckus in the House, making it difficult to conduct the proceedings, he said.

When Om Birla started his address, JDS MLA Annadani got up from his seat holding a Kannada flag and demanded that the former address the legislature in Kannada. In Karnataka, no other language can be spoken inside the House while occupying the Assembly Speaker's chair, he insisted.

Congress boycotts, but JDS members attend event

Congress Assembly and Council members boycotted the joint session addressed by the LS Speaker contending that it was against convention. KPCC president D K Shivakumar said, "Only President and governor can address a joint session. We requested Assembly Speaker to hold the event in the banquet hall, but he did not agree." However, JDS members attended the event. Former CM H D Kumaraswamy said, "We must respect it when someone from outside comes here."

Plea to name building in Central Vista after Anubhava Mantapa

Legislative Council Chairman Basavaraj Horatti on Friday submitted a memorandum to LS Speaker Om Birla requesting him to name a building in the new Centra Vista project after the 'Anubhava Mantapa'. 'Best MLA' award goes to Yediyurappa

ENS @ Bengaluru

FORMER chief minister B S Yediyurappa was presented the first-ever 'Best MLA Award', instituted by the Karnataka Assembly, on Friday. He was given the award in recognition of his long stint in electoral politics and for best performance as member of the House.

Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla presented the award. Assembly Speaker Vishweshwara Hegde Kageri said the award will be an annual feature. In Karnataka, the Council already has the practice of awarding its best member. A panel headed by Kageri, CM Basavaraj Bommai, Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister J C Madhuswamy, Leader of the Opposition Siddaramaiah and MLA R V Deshpande chose Yediyurappa for the award. "As a representative, I have honestly endeavoured to carry out the duties of the legislature, with the realisation of the great responsibility of fulfilling the aspirations of the people in the democratic set-up. For the first time in the history of the State Legislature, I have been honoured with the most honourable legislator award," Yediyurappa tweeted.

Yediyurappa entered the Assembly for the first time in 1983. He has also been a member of the Council and the Lok Sabha.

Rahul's dig at PM childish, immature, says Joshi

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Hubballi

UNION Minister for Parliamentary Affairs Pralhad Joshi on Friday termed Rahul Gandhi's barb at Prime Minister Narendra Modi over China as "childish and immature" and said the Congress leader keeps making such "obnoxious" statements.

Modi is in the US for a Quad summit, a one-on-one meeting with US President Joe Biden and to address the UN General Assembly. The Congress MP tweeted on Friday mocking Modi, saying, "Mr 56 is scared of China".

> Sometimes when there is a serious crisis, he goes out of the country and never has any idea of what is happening in the country. He should not be taken seriously
>
> Pralhad Joshi, Union Minister

Terming Rahul a "non-serious and part-time politician", Joshi said, "Sometimes when there is a serious crisis, he goes out of the country and never has any idea of what is happening in the country. He should not be taken seriously".

On Sino-Indian relation, Joshi said, "The preparedness of Indian forces in handling the recent Chinese incursion has been widely appreciated by defence analysts. For the first time, India is emerging as a global leader and every Indian should be proud."

On TMC general secretary Abhishek Banerjee's comment about the collapse of BJP in West Bengal, he said, "We had three MLAs, now we have 77. Banerjee should understand what has happened to opposition parties from Uttar Pradesh to Tripura. Under Modi, the party is growing and the people are aware of the good deeds of the NDA government. The polls are still three years away."

Reacting to Congress MLAs not attending Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla's address to both Houses of the legislature on Friday, Joshi said opposition party leaders should have spoken to the Assembly Speaker about their reservations and attended the address. "The Speaker does not belong to any single political party. Congress leaders should stop politicising every issue," he added.

Cannot bring in Sharia law, minister on rape punishment

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

LAW and parliamentary affairs minister J C Madhuswamy on Friday clarified that the government can try its best to get rape convicts rigorous punishment through existing laws, but cannot bring in the 'Sharia law' in a democratic country.

Reacting to Bharatiya Janata Party member Bharati Shetty's argument on the floor of the House during zero hour, that stringent punishment like castration should be handed out to rape convicts, the minister clarified that the government has no powers. "To bring in a law on stringent punishments, amendments have to be made to the IPC, CrPC and Evidence Act, for which the state government has no power. It has to be taken up in Parliament, for which we can request the Law Commission to intervene and send a recommendation to the Centre. I certainly feel it's inadequate, as punishment should work as a deterrent, so that no culprit commits such heinous crimes," Madhuswamy stated.

The minister further defended the police in the Mysuru gangrape incident, saying the accused had been nabbed and the survivor's statement recorded before the magistrate.

Madhuswamy revealed that in Mysuru, the people-police ratio is 317 personnel per 1 lakh population, and is the highest compared to the national average of 198, and state's average of 182.

The minister also promised to appoint a woman judge to carry out in-camera hearing of the case.

When opposition leader S R Patil alleged that the FIR was filed 15 hours after the incident, the minister clarified that the case had to be transferred from Krishnarajapuram to Alanahalli police station jurisdiction, and doctors at JSS Medical College Hospital referred it as a medico-legal case.

'Temple Bill a temporary act to maintain communal harmony'

ENS @ Bengaluru

LAW and Parliamentary Affairs Minister J C Madhuswamy on Friday clarified that the Karnataka Religious Structures (Protection) Bill, 2021 has been brought in to give temporary protection to places of worship and maintain communal harmony without hurting the sentiments of the people.

Tabling the Bill in the Council, he said that the new act is subject to the Supreme Court's forthcoming judgment and that the demolition of illegal structures will be taken up case by case.

Leader of Opposition SR Patil alleged that the Bill is being introduced to save the government's face with pro-Hindu organisations raking up the issue of Nanjanagud temple demolition. But Madhuswamy defended it, saying, "It is not that incident in particular as we have included places of worship of all communities to give them protection."

3 critical after incident at chemical factory; Bengaluru sees third fire mishap in four days

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IN the third major fire accident in four days in and around Bengaluru, a boiler exploded injuring seven workers at a chemical factory in Attibele Industrial Area near Anekal on Friday afternoon. Three injured in the incident that occurred at Lake Chemicals Pvt Ltd are said to be critical.

A senior police officer said the incident occurred around 1.15 pm. The powerful explosion shot a 40-kg metal cap of the boiler into the air and it fell on the premises of a neighbouring factory.

Two buildings adjacent to Lake Chemicals were damaged. As it was lunch time, most of the 80 workers in the shift were out. The seven injured were among the few were working inside when the boiler exploded. The company had stocked chemicals to manufacture medicines. Some iron rods kept next to the boiler fell on the workers.

A team of experts from the pollution control board conducted inspection. "Based on their report, we will file a case against the management. Meanwhile, the villagers and gram panchayat members of Inchagere and Vaddarapalya alleged that the blast occurred due to negligence of the company and that a similar accident had taken place a few years ago," a senior investigating officer said.

The critically injured workers have been identified as Suryanath from Assam, Jnanavelu from Tamil Nadu and Munegowda of Anekal. Four others who sustained burns were discharged after first aid.

Passersby complained of breathlessness due to smoke, and they had to be rescued by locals who took them to a safe distance. Forensic experts and fire and emergency personnel, who doused the fire within an hour-and-a-half, said the most likely cause of the explosion could be a short circuit or a technical snag in the boiler. The experts collected samples from the spot, a police officer added.

Friday's accident follows Tuesday's explosion at an apartment in Devarachikkanahalli and the Thursday blast at a godown in New Tharagupet in VV Puram. Both those incidents claimed two lives each.

When TNIE tried contacting the company officials at its Shivajinagar office, they refused to talk, and said the manager had rushed to the spot.

POOR MAINTENANCE

TN Appachu, Chief Electrical Inspector to the government, said poor maintenance of electrical ducts and negligence of the building owners usually causes electrical short circuits. He said every duct in each floor should be sealed and it is mandatory to install Moulded Case Circuit Breakers in flats to avoid such fire mishaps.

Accredited Social Health Activists, Anganwadi, mid-day meal and other scheme workers staged a protest at different locations in Bengaluru on Friday, seeking minimum wage and employee benefits

Miscreants vandalise vehicles in RR Nagar

Bengaluru: Tension gripped RR Nagar along Mysuru Road, after a gang of miscreants created a ruckus and vandalised 16 cars parked in front of houses on Thursday night. Police are checking CCTV footage to identify the accused. A senior police officer said that around 2.30am, three men came on two bikes and threw stones at Pattanagere and Krishna Garden Layout. One of the residents called the police control room. "We are yet to examine CCTV footage. The accused might have been in a drunken state, and vandalised vehicles in neighbouring areas as well. ENS

Cracker blast: Cops continue search inside godown

Bengaluru: VV Puram police probing the cracker blast case, on Friday continued searching the godown for explosives. The blast had claimed two lives and left six others with severe injuries in New Tharagupet on Thursday afternoon. The injured are undergoing treatment and they are said to be out of danger. A police officer said a special team searched for explosives were still in the godown. While inspecting buildings in the locality, the police found 40 domestic gas cylinders, including 17 filled ones, that were stocked illegally in a shop. The gas agency was informed which took them away. ENS

13 convicted in 2003 Cuddalore 'honour' killing case

Woman's family escorted couple to a cremation ground, poured poison into their ears, mouth, as villagers watched the murders

BAGALAVAN PERIER B @Cuddalore

THE Cuddalore District Special Court for Schedule Caste and Schedule Tribe cases on Friday convicted 13 persons, one of whom was sentenced to death, in an 18-year-old 'honour' killing case. The case pertains to an inter-caste couple, S Murugesan (25) and D Kannagi (22) of Puthucolony near Virudhachalam, who were killed by the latter's family in public at a cremation ground on July 8, 2003 for eloping.

Death sentence and a penalty of ₹4.65 lakh was awarded to D Maruthupandian (49), Kannagi's elder brother. The other accused, C Duraisamy (68), the woman's father, D Rangasamy (45), another brother, and relatives K Kandavelu (54), K Jothi (53), R Mani (66), R Dhanavel (49), V Anjapuli (47), K Ramdoss (52), and N Chinnadurai (50), were sentenced to life and a penalty of ₹4.15 lakh each was imposed on them.

Former deputy superintendent of police (DSP) M Chellamuthu (66) and inspector P Tamilmaran (51) were also given life sentence and imposed ₹3 lakh penalty each. Judge S Uthamaraja further ordered ₹4 lakh should be given to Murugesan's family, from the penalty collected from Chellamuthu and Tamilmaran. He also released S Ayyasamy (61) and P Gunasekaran (59), both relatives of Murugesan's, stating they were brought to the spot forcibly and didn't have a hand in the murder.

The court premises had turned a fortress on Friday, with heavy deployment of armed police force. Pronouncing the verdict, the judge said the killings had left a black mark on the society.

While Murugesan belonged to a Dalit community, Kannagi, who was then studying in Annamalai University, hailed from a Vanniyar family. They got married at the Cuddalore sub-registrar's office in May 2003 and stayed in their respective houses without informing their families. They later eloped and Kannagi was housed by one of Murugesan's relatives. They were found by the woman's kin on the day of the murder and were taken to a cremation ground in Kuppanatham village. Poison was poured into their ears and mouths, even as many villagers bore witness to the incident, and later, their bodies were cremated separately at the same spot.

Although Murugesan's father, Samikannu, lodged a complaint at the Virudhachalam police station, officials there tried to hide killings and filed cases against eight persons, four each from Murugesan's and Kannagi's families. The officials involved were the then inspector, Chellamuthu, and sub-inspector, P Tamilmaran, who was later suspended in a bribery case. The case was transferred to the CBI in 2004, based on an order from the Madras High Court, following a petition from Samikannu.

'Ban tourists in Kodagu for 2 months'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Madikeri

UNDER the banner 'Save Kodagu from Tourism', a group of 32 residents from the district demand closure of the tourism sector in the district for the months of October and November.

A memorandum requesting the same was submitted to Kodagu DC Charulata Somal on Friday. In a three page memorandum, the residents state that the district is faced with a threat from the spread of Covid-19 due to increased inflow of tourists.

"The Cauvery Tula Sankramana will be observed during October and even the schools have now reopened. However, the tourist inflow is increasing and other than the check posts bordering Kerala state, no stringent measures are in place to check the tourists," they state in the memorandum.

They state that Tula Sankramana will be observed on October 17. "Hence, increased tourist flow will risk the spread of the virus. Last year, a ban was laid on tourists and natives from attending Tula Sankramana," they said.

'Girl marrying rapist not reason to quash case'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Kochi

THE Kerala High Court has observed that when rape itself is grave and heinous to shock the sense of justice, a settlement between the perpetrator and the victim, especially a minor, and their subsequent marriage are not matters for consideration to quash the proceedings against the accused.

"Rape is not only a very serious and inhumane offence committed against the girl, but also causes a very serious impact on her relatives and society as a whole," the court observed.

Justice Shircy V issued the order while dismissing a petition filed by first accused P R Rahul of Kodungallur and second accused Virjin of Eriyad in Thrissur seeking to quash the FIR against them. The prosecution alleged that the petitioners forcibly took the 17-year-old victim to the Virjin's rented house where Rahul raped her in 2017.

A pachyderm caught in Mahanadi river, near Munduli Bridge in Cuttack on Friday | EXPRESS

Scribe dies as jumbo rescue goes wrong

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bhubaneswar

AN elephant rescue operation on Mahanadi river at Mundali barrage near Cuttack went horribly wrong as a TV journalist drowned while a member of Odisha Disaster Rapid Action Force (ODRAF) went missing after the rescue boat capsized on Friday afternoon.

The incident occured when an ODRAF inflatable power boat with the chief reporter of local Odia news channel OTV Arindam Das and his cameraperson Pravat Sinha on board went into the river to rescue a sub-adult elephant which was stuck near the barrage in the flooded river for nearly seven hours. The boat capsized after it lost control while trying to get closer to the tusker. The engine of the boat also stopped working.

The power boat overturned near the bridge and the crew members fell into the crashing waters at the head of the barrage. Despite wearing life jackets, they could not swim nor float on the water due to strong current. Even the tusker was seen struggling to stand in the high current of the water.

Arindam Das was pulled out of the river but could not survive. He was announced received dead by doctors at the SCB Medical College and Hospital, Cuttack. Hospital Emergency Officer Bhubanananda Maharana said "Doctors tried to revive him for more than an hour but couldn't. One of the four other ODRAF personnel and video journalist Sinha are in critical condition."

B'luru sees sharp spike in drug seizures, cases

BALA CHAUHAN @ Bengaluru

WITH an alarming increase in drug trafficking in the country since the outbreak of the pandemic, Bengaluru has also earned itself the infamy of becoming a narco-hub. The number of cases, seizures and arrests registered under the Narcotic Drugs & Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act, 1985, by the city police, Narcotics Control Bureau (NCB), Customs and Directorate of Revenue Intelligence (DRI) this year indicate the phenomenal increase in the demand for banned narcotic drugs in comparison to the preceding three years.

Cases registered under NDPS Act since 2018 have also shown a phenomenal increase — from 285 in 2018 to 2,550 as on August end this year. In 2018, the city police had seized 290 LSD strips and in 2019, 155 strips were seized. Last year, 540 strips were seized and as on August 31 this year, 10,900 strips have been confiscated. There has also been an increase in the seizure of Ecstasy tablets since 2019, when the police had seized 1,500 tablets. In 2020, 7,000 tablets were seized. This year, till August-end, 6,900 tablets have been seized. The biggest recovery has been of Ganja (cannabis). The city police seized 750 kg of the contraband in 2018, 1,050 kg in 2019, 3,870 kg in 2020 and 2,710 kg till August this year.

According to sources, ganja reportedly comes from the Maoist belt in Odisha, Telangana and Andhra Pradesh.

The NCB statistics also convey a "three-fold rise in NDPS cases since 2019 in Bengaluru City," said Director, NCB, Bengaluru zone, Amit Ghawate. This year, the NCB has registered 49 cases, seized 9,700 kg of contraband drugs and arrested 108 people under the drug law. "A lot of synthetic drugs have been seized from Bengaluru City," Ghawate pointed out.

Karnataka aims to become leader in hydrogen energy

BOSKY KHANNA @ Bengaluru

THE State Government is working on green hydrogen energy as an alternative, environmental-friendly power source and aims to be a leader in the sector, just like in solar energy.

The concept is new and the government has been influenced by Prime Minister Narendra Modi's recent speech that hydrogen energy is the future. While the state energy department is searching for hydrogen energy sources, it is also working towards generating its own green hydrogen energy.

The department is now contemplating whether to include hydrogen energy as a chapter in its upcoming renewable energy policy or float it as a separate topic altogether. Officials are approaching experts from hydro, chemical and power sectors for advice, and also laboratories, chemical factories and other sources from where hydrogen can be tapped.

A senior energy department official said, "We are focusing on hydrogen energy now as it is a new, emerging stream. This will further reduce dependence on coal-based plants and support power production from solar and wind energy sources. We are looking at sources from where hydrogen energy can be tapped and also how it can be utilised."

"Breaking compounds using green energy to generate hydrogen energy is called green hydrogen energy. It is a new concept and has been tested in some countries. It is found to be useful at labs, industries and hospitals. Our plan it to use this energy at such places," the official added.

Better utilisation of resources could be boon for people with disabilities: Experts

PEARL MARIA D'SOUZA
@Bengaluru

THERE are multiple facets to rehabilitating persons with disability. While one aspect is medical care, the other is psychological and social rehabilitation, which requires the collaboration of the entire community to draw out the best potential of the person -- transferring skills to families and enabling an ecosystem, according to experts.

To bring holistic rehabilitation strategies to make persons with disabilities self dependant, the Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation Department of St John's Medical College and the State Government on Friday launched the Kaveri Association of Rehabilitation Medicine (KARM) – the Karnataka chapter of the Indian Association of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.

V S Basavaraju, state commissioner for people with disabilities, said, "The state spends Rs 14,400 crore on disability pension, which could be used for rehabilitation and better equipment and support, up to 80 per cent people can be made productive, and enhance the GDP by 5-6 per cent in the country."

Talking to TNIE on the sidelines of the programme, Basavaraju said the need is really for local bodies and parent organisations to take up rehabilitation efforts. "We are not yet investing in the latter to transfer skills. Additionally, there is a need for mobility aid and rehabilitation support and therapy to reach those who need it, so their dependence on others reduces," he added.

KARM president Dr Kurien Zachariah suggested that doctors and the advertisement industry should come together to device mechanisms to change the mental construct around disability to have a largescale impact.

Post-Covid, rehabilitation has faced new challenges, said Dr Anand Varma, secretary, KARM. He pointed out that not much was known about the effects of Covid, so, one has to learn and then rehabilitation can begin.

With BJP's help, Left ousts UDF in Kottayam

Kottayam: The LDF had power in just one of the six municipalities in Kottayam district following the last local body elections. The front has increased it to three now, by wresting power from the UDF. If the Left had toppled the Congress-led front in Erattupetta with the support of SDPI nearly two weeks ago, it joined hands with the BJP to oust UDF in Kottayam on Friday. The UDF cried foul, with Opposition Leader V D Satheesan saying the CPM is tying up with communal forces.

Elephants not to be held captive anymore: Madras HC

Chennai: The Madras High Court on Friday ordered the State government to ensure that no elephant is taken into captivity, except for treatment if found unable to support itself in the wild. The bench of Chief Justice Sanjib Banerjee and Justice PD Audikesavalu issued the orders on a petition filed by an activist, Rangarajan Narasimhan, on the ill-treatment of elephants at the Srirangam temple in Tiruchy district. "No private person may capture any elephant or keep the same except those already existing," the bench said. The next hearing will be on October 21.

SENSEX DEFIES GRAVITY, CLIMBS MT 60,000 IN QUICK TIME

The BSE Sensex cracked a new lifetime peak of 60,000 on Friday. It took merely 167 trading sessions to leap from 50,000 points to 60,000—the fastest pace ever for a 10,000-point move. Its peer index Nifty too came tantalisingly close to the 18,000-level, but held forth its exuberance for another day. Having crossed new thresholds of statistical significance twice this year, experts believe that Sensex's fortunes from 60,000 to 1 lakh is only two-three years away. The ongoing market rally also comes just 18 months after the March 2020 carnage, when a vulnerable Sensex crashed down to the 25,000 level as the Covid-19 pandemic wrecked lives and livelihood. Notwithstanding the human and economic misery, investors have found a fresh wind, placing their bets on the underlying strength of Asia's third-largest economy.

Among emerging markets, India has been one of the best return-yielding markets. Easy liquidity, increased domestic inflows and reforms are moving the 30-stock benchmark index towards fresh milestones, even overlooking concerns of an earlier-than-expected US Fed tapering, a possible rate hike and hardening of bond yields. Instead, Indian indices have a single-minded focus on improving corporate earnings, the mass vaccination drive and anticipated rise in private consumption led by the upcoming festive season. But the market boom seldom lasts sans a durable real sector.

Currently, the Sensex is driven by improved FY21 earnings, which in turn was influenced by lower taxes, interest costs and expenses. The FY22 outlook appears bright on the anticipated rise in consumer demand, but retaining the pace of growth is critical. The price earnings ratio, the barometer used for measuring valuations, is at the highest level, exceeding 20, which no market rally can ever sustain. It means a correction is coming, but whether it's a fire or ice moment is unclear. Typically, a fall of at least 20% from a recent peak is considered as a bear market (ice), while a 10% fall defines a correction (fire). Given the high valuations, intermittent volatility is unavoidable and retail investors who began trading as a lucrative side hustle post-Covid must exercise caution.

A K RAJAN CASE AGAINST ENTRANCE TESTS

The National Eligibility cum Entrance Test remains in the news in Tamil Nadu as the state government released a report produced by a committee headed by retired Justice A K Rajan that was meant to examine the social impact of the test. The state, in a Bill passed in the recent Assembly session to scrap the test in TN, used the findings of the report to justify its position. It has been the state's position—regardless of the party in power—that NEET privileges wealthier students from urban backgrounds. It is difficult to dispute this position. Just one data point to consider: the percentage of students gaining medical seats from repeat attempts at the test rose from 12.47% in 2016-17 to 71.42% in 2020-21. To retake a test requires financial and social resources—a burgeoning coaching industry is the beneficiary—that is beyond the reach of families from poorer backgrounds.

Yet, rather than the social impact, the report makes a stronger case against entrance tests such as NEET in themselves. The NEET was ostensibly brought in to ensure a "merit" of students while curbing corruption in medical admissions. Merit is a loaded word, assuming that all candidates are competing from the same position with the same constraints. Clearly this is not the case.

The report compares the test and medical admissions in India to practices in other countries such as the US and UK. Colleges do not exclusively rely on standardised test scores, and rather see the scores alongside school/college grades, personal statements and more. Even the tests are rarely designed to test subject knowledge exclusively but also evaluate the writing and analytical skills of the candidate. These are not tested by NEET. With regard to corruption, even with the NEET, students with poor scores are now able to get private medical seats. Not to mention the scams that have emerged in recent years. Rather than harp on antiquated and apolitical notions of "merit", the Union government, at the very least, should take note of the criticisms in the report, its flaws notwithstanding, and assess whether this test has truly served its stated purpose.

The Northeast has not seen a female chief minister so far. Politically, women here are in the margins. Yet, they have been frontrunners in sports

WHAT MANIPUR'S SPORTING SUCCESS ALSO REVEALS

Of the seven athletes from the Northeast in the Indian contingent to the Tokyo 2020 Olympics, there was only one male, a hockey player from Manipur. Of the seven again, five were from Manipur. The Northeast athletes brought back three medals, and two of these winners are from Manipur. Even these very broad statistics hint at some very obvious and interesting profiles of the Northeast. One of these pertains to gender emancipation, although the idea is problematic. For in matters of state power, women here are in the margins. None of the Northeast states has seen a woman chief minister and it is unlikely this equation will change anytime soon. The question whether Northeast women are truly emancipated will hence always remain an enigma, eliciting several answers, many of them seeming to contradict each other but each with a measure of truth.

The Northeast is indeed a land of paradoxes, but nowhere is this more pronounced than in Manipur. This is a land where its many ethnic communities call themselves siblings but are also bitter rivals, envious and distrustful of each other. This divide works at many different layers. Hill communities who have gone to the extent of ethnic cleansing each other unite when pitted against those they see as their common oppressors, the valley community, who by virtue of the fertile, well-irrigated flatlands they inhabit, became more stable and complex socio-politically from premodern times. But despite Manipur's hill-valley antagonism—in the pattern of the relationship James C Scott said existed between "Paddy States" in valleys and state-evading non-state communities in the hills in upper South East Asia that he called Zomia—the two also share numerous folklores and legends binding them at a subliminal level.

Domestic abuse by male heads of families, preferences and privileges for male children, disrespect for LGBT, etc., are near universal but at the same time, women have also been very much in the forefront of the traditional agrarian economy as well as in social campaigns. If in modern politics women today find little space, this was not exactly so in many traditional spheres. Irom Sharmila's 16-year hunger strike for the abrogation of the draconian Armed Forces Special Powers Act (AFSPA), a record that will probably not ever be broken in human history, as well as many powerful social movements led by women's organisations such as the Meira Paibis are reminiscent of the shape things were in the premodern past, though even there, gender oppressive institutions were not entirely unknown. But by and large, in the transition to the modern, a severe disconnect seems to have been introduced and women have lost the place they once had in the society's understanding of state power. Sports, where these new social barriers have still not reached, is now proving to be where women are showing they can do as much as or more than their male counterparts. This is also an indication that if doors to all other fields of life were left open to all genders, the scenario should not be any different.

But beyond the gender question, the fact that this tiny state of about three million has emerged as a virtual nursery of outstanding sportspersons, 19 of them Olympians so far, should also have some interesting insights. The earlier batches of these sportspersons were generally from Imphal but as the city got progressively more congested and local playgrounds either shrunk or disappeared to be replaced by a few official and more exclusive stadiums, sporting talents too trickled away, only to show up in the rural agrarian hinterlands. As a pattern, most of the athletes who make their way to the top are from impoverished backgrounds. Mary Kom, Laishram Sarita Devi, Ngangom Dingko Singh, the latest sensation Saikhom Mirabai Chanu and more, almost all have this background in common. Quite obviously, there would be so many other states with people sharing the same socio-economic conditions, so what is it that gives these young men and women the extra drive to give their everything to overcome several formidable barriers to be frontrunners in their chosen sporting disciplines?

> Most of the athletes who make their way to the top are from impoverished backgrounds. Mary Kom, Saikhom Mirabai Chanu and more, almost all have this background in common. What gives them the extra drive to give their everything to overcome several formidable barriers?

In the Freudian sense, the answer may lie in Manipur's measure of success in sublimating this innate and chaotic violence within—the instinctual energy of id striking the right balance with the civilisational regulatory norms of superego. In the raw, this killer instinct can result in mayhem, but its sublimation can lead to sporting excellence, exquisite arts, etc. Hence, like in sports, Manipur's Nat Sankirtan is listed among UNESCO's intangible heritages and directors like Ratan Thiyam and Heisnam Kanheilal have caused ripples in the theatre world. In literature, few have interpreted this personality dynamic better than Joseph Conrad in Heart of Darkness and William Golding in Lord of the Flies.

This is where Manipur's numerous paradoxes come in. The bitter and often deadly ethnic rivalries, youth unrests, unemployment, poverty, insurgency—the list is long. But it is also a state that finds time for unbridled festivities even amidst raging social discontents and street violence. This was evident even in accounts of Ras Lila dance festivities held in the midst of WWII bombings and the consequent massive internal displacement of its population. Similar examples of the ease with which creativity and destruction are juxtaposed are many. In addition to this, amongst its many communities, there is also a deep affinity for their identities and a longing to contribute or prove themselves worthy of it.

The takeaway from all this is that the way forward is not in smothering the raw, potentially violent energy within a society, but in harnessing it and channelising it to creative directions.

ENSURE AT LEAST NEXT GENERATION IS HAPPY

NANDITHA KRISHNA

Historian and environmentalist. She also runs many schools and a college

This year, three children in Tamil Nadu have already committed suicide over NEET. The results have not yet come out and one child did not even appear for the exam. Anticipating failure, all three (unconnected) committed suicide.

In 2019, one child died by suicide every hour in India. There were 10,335 student suicides that year, the highest number in the last 25 years. Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, Tamil Nadu, Karnataka and Uttar Pradesh, in that order, are the five states with the highest child suicide rates, accounting for more than 44% of the suicides. Psychologists say depression, drugs, mental health factors and examination pressures are the common reasons for child suicides.

A ban on NEET is not possible because the Supreme Court has passed an order. Many years ago, I knew a young boy, an only child, whose mother told him, from the time he was six, that he had to join IIT. The child worked hard but the fear of failure made him commit suicide a few days before the entrance exam. So do we ban the JEE too?

Indian parents pressure their children to reach heights that were denied to them. I remember that years ago, when I went to pick up my three-year-old son from his playschool, a mother was scolding her child for not writing in class. "How will you ever join IIT at this rate?" she asked the bewildered three-year old, who had no idea what IIT was.

Engineering colleges were once in great demand, but their proliferation has brought down their value. IIT is a passport to the US, while medicine is an assured, well-paying career, so these are in great demand. No parent worries about aptitude. The child must fulfil the parent's obsession. Many years ago, my son got admission to the Department of Chemical Engineering of an eminent university. The day before the fees were to be paid he came and asked my husband and me whether we minded if he did history instead. Not being ambitious parents, we told him to do whatever he wanted. He did history and later completed his Ph.D. in history. So many people berated me for permitting the change, one friend even saying that I did not love my son, for what would he do with history? Well, he is a happy human being, and that matters most.

Examination pressures are exacerbating the mental health of our children. They have to learn by rote and are scared of omitting even a word of teacher-prepared answers. Above that is parental pressure: "I spent so much money on you" or "what will people say if you fail" or "I expect this from you". The burden is too much. Let us not forget that every student is a child. Some take drugs and slip into happy oblivion, creating social problems. Nobody is talking about drug usage among students. Some run away from home. Others commit suicide.

No other state is opposing NEET. If children from other states can pass the NEET exam, so can the Tamil child. He/she is no less in ability or intelligence. Suicide is most prevalent in government schools where family pressure is very high. Many children are also first-time learners in the family, so the support system is weak. Also, state boards give very high marks, which make a student overestimate his/her ability.

> Indian parents pressure their children to reach heights that were denied to them. I remember that years ago, when I went to pick up my three-year-old son from his playschool, a mother was scolding her child for not writing in class. "How will you ever join IIT at this rate?" she asked the bewildered three-year old, who had no idea what IIT was

To overcome this, the government must appoint psychologists, backed by psychiatrists, for schools. Children must be screened for aptitude before being permitted to appear for NEET or JEE. I know of doctors who left to join the IAS or even become musicians. Each was a medical seat wasted. Today the sky is the limit when it comes to the choice of subjects. Subject options when I was in school were limited—either you did maths-physics-chemistry for engineering college, or chemistry-botany-zoology for medical college, or humanities, to join commerce or arts colleges. But the child has nobody to advise him/her. Parents are inflexible. Teachers dare not oppose the parents. To whom will the child go for help? They must also be told that failure is not an end. Mark Zuckerberg, Steve Jobs and Bill Gates are shining examples.

Every state must improve its educational standards. There could be one "senior" school final (Standard 12) exam equivalent to CBSE for which children with aptitude and ability are coached towards NEET/JEE. Another "high" school final (also Standard 12) could be at a lower level, to accommodate those who are not capable of finishing school at a higher level. The Standard 10 exam was supposed to do that, but that has failed. Children must not have expectations beyond their ability, nor should they be pushed by schools and parents to achieve somebody else's dreams. Schools must have constant aptitude tests. Is the child really fit to be a doctor or is the parent's ambition pushing him? The only solution is counselling and every government, corporation and private school must have a school counsellor who is qualified with an M.A. in educational psychology. Sadly, few colleges offer educational psychology as a subject.

Society must ensure that the next generation is a happy generation. For this, we need understanding parents. We must teach children optimism, self-discipline and the importance of healthy relationships. Let them put in their best effort, but not die for perfection. Give children playtime, funtime and family-time. Discard the useless Standard 10 exam. Today a child stops playing from the time he/she enters Standard 9. The next four years are only study, study, study and more study. What a life!

PM should set an example

Prime Minister Narendra Modi, while being greeted by members of the Indian diaspora on his arrival at Washington DC on Thursday, was seen not wearing a mask and shaking hands with the crowd (Sep 24). He needs to be more responsible for his health in the background of the current pandemic.

Not a government fund?

The Centre's stand that the PM CARES fund is not a government fund is incomprehensible and devoid of logic. According to the information available, the Indian Armed Forces, the RBI and a good number of PSUs and banks have made significant contributions to the fund. Such contributions might not have come forth if the fund had been set up in the PM's personal name or as a separate private one.

A dangerous trend

The CBI has declared that Additional District Judge Uttam Anand was intentionally hit by an autorickshaw while out on a morning walk. It is dangerous that judges cannot move freely without risk to life. If they continue to be threatened like this, they may not be able to award free and fair judgments. In a democratic country like India, the judiciary is a ray of hope for justice to citizens. Exemplary punishment must be given to the culprits as a deterrent.

Poor roads in Bengaluru

The report that about ₹20,000 crore has been spent since 2015 on road repairs in Bengaluru is shocking. Yet, hundreds of potholes continue to haunt the people, leading to many accidents, some fatal. The poor state of roads can be attributed to the inferior quality of repairs. The proposed road maintenance audit should be taken up immediately.

Blown out of proportion

This is with reference to End the narcotic jihad discourse, restore sanity (Sep 24). The editorial is timely. It is unfortunate that any controversial statement made in public by an individual is blown out of proportion, leading to hot debates in the media and on political platforms. This tendency must be curbed at all costs in the interest of peace.

Stop politicising religion

Not surprisingly, political parties interpreting Bishop Joseph Kallarangatt's statement for their own gains have done more harm than the remark itself could have. It's time political parties stopped playing the religion card just for petty votes.

Donating for salvation

This is with reference to Daana and the King's Balance at Hampi (Sep 24). From time immemorial, wealth has been shown to be a hindrance to salvation and the only solution was to give part of it as offerings. As a result, in ancient times as well as now, the Tulaabhaaram ritual is practised. All religious texts encourage donations of all kinds. Thus, it is not surprising that such a balance is found in Hampi.

SC probe into Pegasus

The Supreme Court's decision to constitute a panel of experts to probe into the Pegasus issue is good. With the Centre shying away from filing an affidavit on Pegasus citing security reasons, the SC was left with no alternative but to act on its own. With the court's orders expected in a week, the Centre might find it difficult to wriggle out of this mess.

Asks Islamabad to rein in terror groups so that security of India, US is not impacted

In meet with Modi, Harris talks of Pak role in terror

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

US Vice President Kamala Harris, in her meeting with Prime Minister Narendra Modi, referred to Pakistan's role in terrorism and urged Islamabad to act on terror groups so that India's and America's security is not impacted.

"When the issue of terrorism came up, the Vice President suo motu referred Pakistan's role in that regard. She asked Pakistan to take action so that this will not impact US security and that of India. She agreed with the Prime Minister's briefing on the fact of cross-border terrorism and the fact that India has been a victim of terrorism for several decades now and on the need to rein in, and closely monitor Pakistan's support for such terrorist groups," Foreign Secretary Harsh Vardhan Shringla said in a press briefing after the meeting.

During the meeting, Modi and Harris decided to boost bilateral ties and discussed various issues of regional and global importance, including Afghanistan and Indo-Pacific.

In a joint press interaction with Modi, Harris said it was important that India and the US protect democracies in the best interest of their people. "As democracies around the world are under threat, it is imperative that we defend democratic principles and institutions within our respective countries and around the world. And that we maintain what we must do to strengthen democracies at home and it is incumbent on our nations to of course protect democracies in the best interests of people of our countries," she said.

Earlier on Thursday, the PM held a bilateral meeting with his Australian counterpart Scott Morrison where the leaders discussed defence, energy and other issues. "They discussed a wide range of subjects aimed at deepening economic and people-to-people linkages between India and Australia," the PMO tweeted .

According to a statement by the MEA, the two leaders expressed satisfaction at the ongoing negotiations on a bilateral Comprehensive Economic Cooperation Agreement. They welcomed former Australian PM Tony Abbott's visit to India by as Special Trade Envoy and noted the commitment of both sides to achieve an early harvest announcement on an interim agreement by December.

PM's visit will help strategic, economic interests: BJP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

THE BJP on Friday said the multi-dimensional talks Prime Minister Narendra Modi will have with top global leaders during his US visit will serve the strategic and economic interests of India.

The party also sought to draw a positive message from the PM's meeting with heads of five companies, arguing that the confidence of the US corporates in the Indian economy was visible.

Underling that Modi will be meeting the third US President, BJP spokesperson Sudhanshu Trivedi said, "In the past seven years, the PM Modi's relations with the US Presidents, irrespective of the changes in the government there, have remained intense while the Indian perspective has strongly been put forth."

He stated that the commitment of Blackstone, a US firm, to further scale up Indian investment at a time when "signs of recession in China are visible" speaks strongly of the resilience of the country's economy. "Blackstone already has $60 billion worth of investment, and it has committed to further scale it up in the near future, with similar sentiments expressed by other companies," said Trivedi.

He sought to contrast the Indian economy with that of China, arguing that the investors are opting for India because of better prospects.

Rajasthan rejig on the cards; Pilot meets Rahul, Priyanka

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

AFTER settling the Punjab leadership tussle, the Congress leadership seems to have turned its focus to Rajasthan. Former Congress president Rahul Gandhi and general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra on Friday met Sachin Pilot with cabinet expansion in the state on the cards.

During the meeting, sources said there was a discussion on pending cabinet expansion in Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot government and induction of MLAs from Pilot camp, as was promised to him after he was wooed back to party following his rebellion last year.

Pilot, who was removed as deputy chief minister and state Congress chief after the rebellion, is also demanding inclusion of his people in various boards, corporations and other political positions.

The meeting, second within a week's time, comes close on the heels of the party going for leadership change in Punjab and getting a new chief minister by replacing party veteran Amarinder Singh ahead of assembly polls in the state.

No official word on discussion

Though there was no official word on what transpired at the meeting, sources said the impending cabinet expansion and organisational rejig were discussed. Pilot has been pushing for Cabinet expansion for long.

Sources said that as of now, leadership change in the state is unlikely but ahead of Rajasthan assembly election in 2023, the party may bring him at the helm of affairs and project as the face of the party.

"The situation in Punjab and Rajasthan is different as Captain (Amarinder Singh) lost the faith of the majority of the MLAs while Gehlot enjoys the support of most legislators. Moreover, the party as of now would not want to take chances, giving the BJP any opportunity to destablise the government," they added.

The party has officially maintained that the cabinet expansion has been delayed due to ill-health of Gehlot but a senior leader said that the chief minister is not agreeing to the formula worked out by party high command.

"Pilot has been assured cabinet expansion as soon as early next month and he has also been offered a key role in the AICC," said sources, adding that earlier he had turned down central position on ground that he would want to focus on Rajasthan.

There were reports that the party wants him to take charge of election-bound Gujarat as the party is looking to appoint AICC incharge for the state, a post that fell vacant following the demise of Rajeev Satav.

Tikait seeks Joe Biden's intervention to get farm laws scrapped

LUCKNOW: Bharitya Kisan Union's (BKU) national spokesman Rakesh Tikait, took to twitter on Friday to seek intervention of US President Joe Biden to get the laws scrapped. Tikait's tweet tagging @POTUS, the US president's twitter handle, has set off a storm in the political circles as it has come hours ahead of meeting between the two leaders. "Dear @POTUS, we the Indian farmers are protesting against 3 farm laws brought by PM Modi's govt. 700 farmers have died in the last 11 months protesting. These black laws should be repealed to save us. Please focus on our concern while meeting PM Modi," Tikait, the farmers' leader spearheading the farmers protest against the three farm laws, tweeted. ENS

6K houses under central scheme cancelled in three states

KUMAR VIKRAM @New Delhi

NEARLY 6,000 houses under Prime Minister Aawas Yojana (Urban) have been cancelled in three states—Madhya Pradesh, Kerala and Ladakh. Lack of proper verification, death, migration or duplicate entry of beneficiaries and non-compliance with the criteria are some of the reasons behind cancellation of houses under the ambitious scheme of the Centre.

MP also proposed cancellation of 1,740 houses in two AHP (affordable housing in partnership) projects, 960 houses in 1 slum redevelopment project and 1,711 in 45 BLC (beneficiary led construction) projects.

In a recently held meeting of the central monitoring committee, the state proposed cancellation of the above houses and the reasons given included death, migration or duplicate entry of beneficiaries and also, some of them were not having their own land.

While approving the proposal, the committee observed that the state authority should have followed due diligence in identifying eligible beneficiaries.

Kerala proposed cancellation or curtailment of 1,047 houses in 129 BLC projects due to non-availability of valid documents of beneficiaries, land falling in coastal regulation zones and not meeting criteria.

The central committee in the case of Kerala observed that the state was required to examine the list to avoid any future dispute and resentment of the beneficiaries and approved cancellation of 1047 houses.

In Ladakh, 404 houses were proposed for cancellation after a door-to-door survey by the monitoring committee in Kargil and Leh found that many beneficiaries already had pucca or semi-pucca houses.

MoD SIGNS ₹21K CR DEAL FOR 56 AIRBUS AIRCRAFT

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

THE Ministry of Defence (MoD) on Friday signed a ₹21,000 crore deal with Airbus Defence and Space, Spain, for acquisition of 56 transport aircraft for the Indian Air Force with an aim to replace the ageing fleet of Avro transport aircraft. These contracts were signed following the approval accorded by the Cabinet Committee on Security earlier this month.

"The induction of C-295MW will be a significant step towards modernisation of the transport fleet of the IAF. It is a transport aircraft of 5-10 tonne capacity with contemporary technology," the MoD statement said.

The aircraft is capable of operating from semi-prepared strips and has a rear ramp door for quick reaction and para dropping of troops and cargo. It will give a major boost to tactical airlift capability of IAF, especially in the northern and Northeastern sector and Andaman & Nicobar Islands.

This contract is seen as a step to provide a major boost to the Atmanirbhar Bharat Abhiyan of the government as it offers a unique opportunity for the Indian private sector to enter into the highly competitive aviation industry. Under the agreement, Airbus will deliver the first 16 aircraft in 'fly-away' condition from its final assembly line in Seville, Spain within four years. The subsequent 40 aircraft will be manufactured and assembled by Tata Advanced Systems in India as part of a partnership between the two companies and all the deliveries will be made by 2031.

All 56 aircraft will be installed with indigenous Electronic Warfare Suite, the MoD said. After completion of the delivery, the subsequent aircraft manufactured in India can be exported to countries cleared by the government.

Shah to hold meet with LWE-hit states on Sunday

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

FOR the second time since he was sworn-in as Union Home Minister, Amit Shah is scheduled to chair a high-level review meeting with chief ministers of 10 states hit by Left Wing Extremism (LWE) on Sunday. It is being held nearly five months after 23 jawans from Chhattisgarh's state police forces and CRPF were killed in an ambush in Bijapur, in April.

According to sources, Union Home Secretary Ajay Bhalla, Intelligence Bureau Director Arvind Kumar, senior officials of the home ministry, state chief secretaries and Central Reserve Police Force DG will attend the meet at Delhi's Vigyan Bhawan.

The states invited for the meeting are Andhra Pradesh, Bihar, Chhattisgarh, Jharkhand, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Odisha, Telangana, Uttar Pradesh and West Bengal.

The agenda is to discuss ways of further intensifying anti-Naxal operations, particularly in Chhattisgarh, which remains the worst-hit by the menace. One of the ways, according to a highly placed source, is to install Forward Operating Bases and security camps in Naxal dominated areas on a war-footing.

According to sources, a total of 15 forward-operating bases since 2019 has reduced and confined Maoist activities in Chhattisgarh. Sources added that while the construction activity were somewhat curtailed due to Covid-19 restrictions, the momentum towards this has started building again as supply routes have resumed normally.

A senior government functionary said that the government plans to build at least 10 more security camps in Chhattisgarh this year and the Union Home Minister is likely to take a personal stock of the progress made towards this in the meeting that he chairs on Sunday.

Places of worship in Maha to reopen on October 7

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mumbai

THE Maharashtra government on Friday announced reopening of all religious places from October 7 in the state with Covid-19 protocols. However, Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray, who made the announcement, urged people not to drop guard in view of a possible third wave of the pandemic.

"All religious places will be opened from October 7 in the state. The Maharashtra government has prepared itself for a third wave, but with all precautions, the state is allowing relaxations in various activities," he said.

The CM said though infections are declining in the state the threat persists. "While religious places are going to be opened, people still need to wear face masks and use hand sanitizers. The management of religious places will be responsible for implementation of such measures," the CM said.

For long, the opposition BJP had been demanding reopening of places of worship.

Meanwhile, five districts in the state continue to report a high weekly positivity rate against the state average of 2.28 per cent. These are Ahmednagar with 4.78 per cent positivity, Pune with 4.62 per cent positivity, Sangali with 3.97 per cent positivity, Sindhudurg with 3.46 per cent and Osmanabad with 3.40 per cent positivity rate.

NIC told to remove PM photo from SC's e-mails

NEW DELHI: The Supreme court registry has directed the National Informatics Centre to remove and replace the slogan of 'Sabka Sath, Sabka Vikas' along with the Prime Minister's picture and replace them with the image of the top court. NIC provide email service to the Supreme Court.

"Late last evening, it was brought to the notice of the registry that the official e-mails of the Supreme Court were carrying an image as footer which has no connection whatsoever with the functioning of the judiciary," an official source said.

The NIC was directed to drop that image from the footer of the emails originating from the Supreme Court, he added.

"It was further directed to use the picture of the Supreme Court of India, instead. NIC has since complied with the directions of the SCI," he said.

Darrang firing: Families of two victims united in grief

Teen was out to see eviction; other angry at cops for beating daughter

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @Guwahati

Farid was the youngest son of the Khaleques who are small farmers | EXPRESS

IT took one bullet to shatter the dream of Abdul Khaleque. The farmer from Dholpur No 2 village in Assam's Darrang district had big expectations from his 'bright' teenage son Sheikh Farid. Even fellow villagers felt the same. Not anymore.

The Class 9 boy's life was cut short by a police bullet during an eviction drive. Farid was one of the two persons killed when a mob clashed with the police at neighbouring village on Thursday. "He was a bright student. We all thought he would make us proud someday but the police killed him without any provocation," a distraught Khaleque told this newspaper.

Farid was the youngest of four siblings. His three brothers slog in the field to support the family of six. Stricken by poverty, most families in this village — which is located on the northern bank of Bramhaputra — send their children to farm instead of schools.

Khaleque said he had no idea Farid had gone out to see the eviction drive. "We have a democratic right to stage a protest but the police fired indiscriminately," he said as his wife wept inconsolably.

The neighbours keep visiting the house to console the family at this hour of grief.

The farmer said a lot of locals had gone to Dholpur No 3 village on Thursday, worried over an impending similar drive in their village. "The villagers have remained tense for the past few days as they fear their village could be targeted next. So, a lot of them had gone to see how things unfold there amidst the protest."

Had he any slightest inkling that Farid would to go there, he said, he would have stopped him. "The government has taken the life of an innocent boy. We will not get peace in mind till justice is delivered."

> He was a bright student. We all thought he would make us proud someday but the cops killed him without any provocation. Govt took away the life of an innocent boy

> Abdul Khaleque, victim's father

Moinul Hoque, 32, was the other victim. He had lost his cool after his daughter was allegedly beaten up by the police. He had charged at policemen with a stick but they allegedly shot him down at point blank range.

"He and his family members were vacating the house when some cops entered the house and beat up his daughter. This enraged him and he attempted to attack the personnel," said Ainuddin Ahmed, advisor to All Assam Minority Students' Union (AAMSU).

Hoque, a farmer, was the lone breadwinner in the family of eight. He left behind his parents, wife, and three children.

Assam CM blames third party for eviction violence

GUWAHATI: Assam CM Himanta Biswa Sarma suspects the hand of a third party in Thursday's violence during the eviction drive at Dholpur.

"The eviction drive was nearing its end and there was no problem till Wednesday. Only 60 families had to be evicted but 10,000 people swarmed to the site to put up a resistance. Where did they come from? Who brought them?" Sarma said, adding that this was the reason why the government ordered a judicial inquiry.

He lamented that the clash occurred despite his assurance to the All Assam Minority Students' Union that all the landless people would be provided with 6 bighas of land. "I had also said that we cannot give land to those who own land elsewhere. They all accepted it." Sarma said some families occupied up to 300 bighas.

He condemned the act of the photographer, who had stomped on an injured man, but asked people to not judge the incident merely based on the video. ENS

BJP seals alliance with Nishad Party in UP

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

Union Minister Dharmendra Pradhan with Nishad Party chief Sanjay Nishad | PTI

WITH the 2022 electoral battle for Uttar Pradesh looming large, the BJP on Friday sealed its alliance with Nirbal Indian Shoshit Hamara Apna Dal (NISHAD).

Meanwhile, two former senior BSP leaders Lalji Verma and Ram Achal Rajbhar met Samajwadi Party chief Akhilesh Yadav at the SP headquarters here.

Putting all the speculation of rift and differences to end, Union minister and BJP's UP poll in-charge Dharmendra Pradhan made the formal announcement that the ruling party would contest the state elections in alliance with NISHAD party and Apna Dal under the leadership of Yogi Adityanath.

Significantly, the Nishad (boatmen) community and associated 15 sub-castes make a major 15 per cent chunk of OBC voters in UP, especially in eastern region.

"We reiterate that we are together for the UP elections," announced Pradhan. Flanked by UP BJP chief Swatantra Deo Singh and NISHAD party chief Sanjay Nishad, Pradhan said the seat-sharing formula with the ally was finalised. It would be announced "at a right time", he added.

As per informed sources, the BJP is likely to accommodate Sanjay Nishad further by nominating him to the UP Legislative Council. However, Sanjay Nishad had been making the claim of demanding a major chunk of seats from BJP as his party has a clout on at least 60 seats in east UP.

Elaborating on the strategy based on the principle of what he called 'Samajik samrasta', Pradhan said the BJP was making efforts to rope in other smaller parties with the NDA.

Nishad had been meeting the BJP top brass, including Union Home Minister Amit Shah and BJP national president JP Nadda for quite some time in connection with the poll alliance.

In 2017 Assembly elections, NISHAD party had contested on 72 seats but won just one from Gyanpur. In 2018 Lok Sabha bypoll, Sanjay Nishad got his presence acknowledged when his son Praveen won as a BSP-supported SP candidate from Gorakhpur, the bastion of Yogi Adityanath.

However, in 2019 elections, Sanjay Nishad made a dramatic switch over to BJP and his son Praveen contested and won as the party candidate from Sant Kabir Nagar.

In the opposition camp too, the day was marked much activity when Verma and Rajbhar met Akhilesh. Both Verma and Rajbhar were expelled by BSP chief Mayawati in October 2020 for 'anti-party' activities. This followed the speculations of both leaders joining the SP in June, this year.

CBI takes over Prayagraj mahant's case, war of succession looms large

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

THE CBI commenced the probe into the alleged suicide case of Mahant Narendra Giri by filing an FIR on Friday after taking over the case from Prayagraj police.

While the seer's disciple Anand Giri, Bade Hanumanji temple head priest Adya Tiwari and his son Sandip are in 14-day judicial custody, the UP government had recommended a CBI probe into the case on late Wednesday night. The preliminary autopsy report revealed that the mahant died of asphyxia due to hanging.

Meanwhile, the war of succession in Shri Muthh Baghmbari Gaddi is likely to intensify as three wills were done at different times by the mahant have surfaced. What may add to the feud is that the mahant named Mahant Balbir Giri as his successor in the alleged suicide note, which was rejected by the Niranjani Akhara, to which the late seer belonged, and the Akhil Bharatiya Akhara Parishad. They have postponed the appointment of the mahant's successor to September 25.

Mahant's advocate Rishishankar Dwivedi, who had got all the three wills registered, said that the first will was done on January 7, 2010 mentioning Balbir Giri as the successor. Cancelling the first will, the second was done on August 29, 2011. "Mahantji replaced the name of his successor with his disciple Anand Giri. Anand Giri was supposed to be very close to Mahant Narendra Giri at that time," said Dwivedi.

However, cancelling both the prior wills, the third was done on June 4, 2020 in which he again nominated Balbir Giri as successor, said Dwivedi.

According to the lawyer, the appointment of successor at Shri Muthh Baghamabri Gaddi is always done on the basis of the will left by the preceding head. "Even Mahant Narendra Giri was appointed the head of Baghambari Gaddi on the basis of the will left behind by his predecessor," said Dwivedi.

Manipur CM repents to kin of slain leader

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Guwahati

MANIPUR CM N Biren Singh on Friday tendered an apology to the family of Athuan Abonmai after a public outrage against the killing of the prominent Naga leader.

Abonmai was abducted by a group of alleged rebels of the National Socialist Council of Nagalim (NSCN-IM) from Tamenglong on Wednesday. Hours later, his bludgeoned body was retrieved 7 km away. The victim is seen in a viral video being bundled into a jeep under the nose of some policemen. He had come out of his home to attend a government programme.

Singh, also the state's Home Minister, is livid with the police inaction. "It was the duty of the policemen to intervene and save his life," Singh told journalists at a press conference. The Manipur CM said the government would hand the case over to the NIA if a nexus between the militants and the police was established.

While 16 policemen, including officers, were suspended, the government has already ordered a probe headed by an Inspector General of Police.

For some unknown reasons, Abonmai's differences with the NSCN-IM grew in recent times following which he had curtailed his movement fearing threat to his life. He was the former president of Zeliangrong Baudi, a conglomerate of tribal organisations.

3 more held over Dombivli gangrape

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mumbai

THREE more accused were arrested on Friday in the Dombivli gang-rape case, which has evoked strong public rage in Maharashtra. While 32 people were booked in the case, 29 have been arrested. Coming from lower middle-class families of Dombivli area, the accused were into petty jobs such as contract labourers, courier deliver, milk suppliers, workers in restaurants and housing keeping firms. They were acquainted with each other since most of them stayed nearby.

"Most of these accused connected with each other through Instagram. First, the girl's friend followed by his friends sexually exploited the minor by blackmailing her using a video," said Sachin Gunjal, DCP Thane. Gunjal said that initially as per the girl's version, the accused invited her to a party where they gave her liquor mixed with soft drink. "Then, they blackmailed and continued to exploit her for eight months. We have arrested the accused under relevant sections of IP and Pocso." Another police officer said the mobile phone of these accused were sent for forensic investigations.

IITian tops Civil Service exam

Shubham Kumar and Jagriti Awasthi

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi/Bihar/Bhopal

An IIT-Bombay graduate from Bihar topped the Civil Service Examination (CSE), results for which were announced by the UPSC on Friday. Shubham Kumar from Katihar in Bihar secured the first rank, followed by Bhopal girl Jagrati Awasthi, an engineer from Maulana Azad National Institute of Technology, Bhopal. Shubham emerged topper with anthropology as his optional, while Jagrati's was sociology.

The son of a bank cashier, Shubham did his schooling from a government school before making it to IIT-Bombay. He did not succeed in his first attempt in 2018, but secured rank 290 in the very next. He attempted the exam for the third time to improve his ranking and emerged as the 2020 topper. "I prepared for two years in Delhi, of which one was with an institute," he said. He had quit his job as a researcher in the US to prepare for the exam.

TOPPERS ALL FOR GOING BACK TO ROOTS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Patna/Bhopal

FROM starting education at a government school in village to graduating from IIT-Bombay, Shubham Kumar has seen enough of ups and downs. Perhaps, that fuelled the zeal of Kumar — the son of a bank cashier from Bihar's Katihar district — to top the 2020 UPSC civil services exam.

Kumar said that it was the dream of his late grand father and father Devanand Singh to see him in IAS. Now that a new career beckons him, Kumar is clear about his choice.

"Since I have a strong connect with village, I would like to mitigate the loss of life during flood through flood management and explore the ways as how to empower women also promoting food processing agro initiatives." he told the media.

Kumar, who hails from Katihar in Bihar, is currently undergoing training at the National Academy of Defence Financial Management (NADFM), Pune.

In Bhopal, the media swarmed at the house of Jagriti Awasthi, who emerged the woman topper and second overall ranker of UPSC Civil Services Exam, 2020.

Infosys Foundation chairperson Sudha Murthy inspires the young engineer.

Jagriti quit her job of an engineer in BHEL in 2019 after failing to clear the UPSC exam to focus on chasing her dream of becoming a civil servant.

"I want to replicate the competence and simplicity of Sudha Murthy and usher rural development and empowerment like Bhakti Sharma, the young sarpanch of Bhopal's Barkheda Abdullah village," she said. "I was confident, but to do it with such flying colours is like a fairytale coming true."

Elder among the two children, Jagriti cracked the exam in her second attempt.

"My aim in life is to script a unique saga of rural development and empowerment as a competent and honest civil servant, who is accountable to people and not to the politicians," Jagriti said.

Centre's no to caste census: Nitish in shock

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ Patna

POLITICS in Bihar went on boil on Friday following the Centre's refusal to carry out a caste census, with the opposition accusing the BJP of being deceitful with the OBCs.

RJD chief Lalu Prasad urged the people to boycott the OBC ministers and MPs of BJP, if they don't come out in support of caste census. "Why does the BJP and the RSS hate backward castes so much? The caste census will benefit all sections and the reality of all will come out," he tweeted.

The BJP was forced to come out defending the Centre's decision not to enumerate the OBCs, saying it was an 'impractical' demand.

BJP state chief Sanjay Jaiswal separated the party's stand from the stand of ally JD-U on the caste census.

"It is not the right to repeat the mistake of 2011. It is impractical demand. Around 4.28 lakh castes were found during the 2011 caste census through columns filled by the people. A majority of people had not mentioned their castes. The Centre finds it impractical to create 4.28 lakh columns for it," he asserted.

In the socio-economic census in 2011, he said, the government has seen that it was completely impractical to conduct caste based census at present.

Every state is free to work on the caste census, he said. "But for the Centre now, it is not possible to conduct the enumeration of castes for all-except SC/ST, as part of census 2021."

But, BJP ally Nitish Kumar is at his wits end since Thursday. He had led all-party delegation to meet the PM on August 23. "The news came like a bolt from the blue for Nitish, who was hopeful of a positive outcome after the meeting," a senior JD-U leader said,

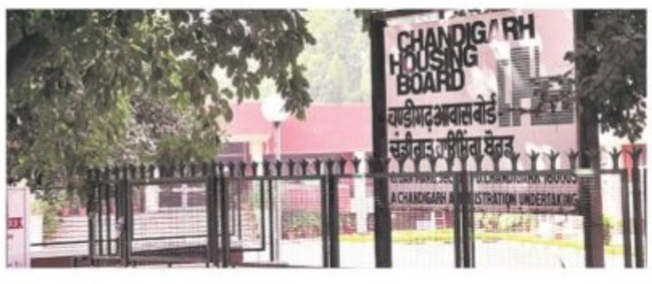
MP: Three labourers die inside sewage tank

Bhopal: Three workers died on Friday evening after inhaling toxic gases while repairing an underground sewage tank in Madhya Pradesh's Singrauli district, police said. The incident took place at Kachni, said SP Virendra Kumar Singh. Workers Kanhaiyalal Yadav and Indrabhan Singh entered the tank and immediately fainted. The private contractor who employed them then allegedly forced Nagendra Rajak, another worker, to climb down but he too passed out.



Housing board tells defaulters to clear dues

The Chandigarh Housing Board has asked the defaulting flat buyers to pay their pending dues by October 31 or face action. The board stated there were pending dues, including rent and installments, and the allottees were requested to clear these by October 31 along with the applicable interest for the delay. If they failed to do so, action would be taken as per the terms and conditions of allotment and relevant rules. There is a considerable amount pending against many allottees of the CHB apartments. The CHB has made available various payment options for hassle-free payment of dues.

Chandigarh's traffic system to get facelift

From January next year the roads in the city will be safer. Also, a tab will be kept on traffic violators as 2,000 CCTV cameras at 285 locations across the city will be functional for real-time surveillance. Of these, 20 will be at the entry points of the city. A total of 87 traffic junctions will also be covered. The city will also get Adaptive Traffic Control System, which works automatically based on real-time traffic. All this will be executed under the Integrated Command and Control Centre (ICCC) project worth ₹295 crore.

Approval for sites to relocate hawkers

The Greater Mohali Area Development Authority (GMADA) has approved seven of the eight proposed sites to relocate street vendors. These are Sector 54, near Bassi Theatre; Sector 55, near phase-1 barrier; Sector 56, near UT-Mohali border; Sector 68, near Temple of Knowledge; Sector 77, near waterworks; Sector 77, near Akal Ashram Colony and Sector 78, near fire station. The approval was given during a meeting between the officials of GMADA and the Mohali Municipal Corporation. The hawkers are currently sitting in front of shops in the main markets in the city.

China conducting experiments on Muslims: Report

Uighur detainees forcibly given injections, mysterious pills, says Amnesty International

LONDON

CHINA is carrying out mysterious medical experiments on Uighur Muslims detainees in the country's Xinjiang region, The Sun reported, quoting Amnesty International.

The rights group said, detainees in these camps, which China calls "re-education centres", are forcibly fed mysterious pills with some of them having their internal organs pulled out—practices that are reminiscent of the Nazi treatment of the Jews.

The Amnesty report is based on testimonies of prisoners who have fled China. Some of them say they were forced to undergo bizarre medical experiments.

Doctors would come and give injections, they said. All they were told was that they were being vaccinated. The injections were given every 10 or 15 days, Amnesty reported.

"While government documents indicate that detainees were required to be vaccinated, the frequency with which some detainees report being injected is suspicious," the UK rights group said.

"The treatment to which the Uighur people are being subjected in Xinjiang camps is nothing short of horrifying. We know there's widespread belief among detainees that forced sterilisation is being practiced on them, and we have concerns about other forms of medical experimentation without consent too," Sacha Deshmukh, Amnesty International UK's CEO told The Sun.

This is not the first time reports have surfaced about China's medical experiments on Uighurs.

Last year, a middle-aged woman, who fled China, told AP that she was forced to take a medicine that made her weak and nauseous. "The pills had different kinds of effects. Some prisoners were cognitively weakened. Women stopped getting their period and men became sterile," Sayragul Sauytbay, a Chinese Muslim told Israel's Haaretz newspaper.

The AP report said the medicines often contained ingredients banned in countries like Germany, Switzerland, the US etc.

Huawei CFO strikes deal with US prosecutors, to be freed

NEW YORK

A top executive of Chinese communications giant Huawei Technologies has reached a deal with the Justice Department that enables her to resolve criminal charges against her, according to her lawyer and a letter from the Justice Department.

The deal with Meng Wanzhou, Huawei's chief financial officer and the daughter of the company's founder, could pave the way for her to return to China.

The agreement, set to be disclosed in federal court in Brooklyn on Friday, resolves a yearslong legal and geopolitical tussle that involved not only the US and China but also Canada, where Meng has remained since her arrest there in December 2018. It

The resolution is known as what's called a deferred prosecution, in which a defendant must agree to abide by certain conditions in exchange for the Justice Department ultimately abandoning the case. Reid Weingarten, a lawyer for Meng, confirmed in an email the existence of the agreement but did not immediately provide additional details.

Meng Wanzhou

A spokesperson for Huawei declined to comment.

The Trump administration's Justice Department unsealed criminal charges in 2019, just before a crucial two-day round of trade talks between the US and China, that accused Huawei of stealing trade secrets and said Meng had committed fraud by misleading banks about the company's business dealings in Iran.

The indictment accuses Huawei of using a Hong Kong shell company called Skycom to sell equipment to Iran in violation of US sanctions.

Meng, the daughter of Huawei's founder, fought the Justice Department's extradition request, and her lawyers called the case against her flawed.

Last month, a Canadian judge reserved her decision on whether Meng should be extradited to the US after a Canadian Justice Department lawyer wrapped up his case by saying there's enough evidence to show she was dishonest and deserves to stand trial in the United States. AP

Turkey looks to Russia as ties with US dip

ISTANBUL

TURKISH President Recep Tayyip Erdogan said on Friday that recent talks with US President Joe Biden had proved disappointing, and that his country, a NATO member, would seek closer ties with Russia.

Speaking after prayers in Istanbul, Erdogan said he and Biden had failed to bridge their differences at a meeting during his visit to New York for the UN General Assembly this week.

"In the discussions with Mr Biden that I'd been anticipating, there wasn't the desired outcome... As two NATO countries, we need to be at a different point," he told journalists.

Erdogan went on to criticize US support for Kurdish militants in Syria who were instrumental in fighting the Islamic State group. Ankara considers them terrorists due to their links to the Kurdistan Workers' Party, or PKK, which has waged a 37-year insurgency against Turkey. Turkey has a large and restive Kurdish ethnic minority. The PKK is listed as a terrorist organization by the US and the European Union.

"America is not fighting terrorist organisations enough, it is giving them a lot of weapons and equipment," he said.

Erdogan is due to meet Russian President Vladimir Putin in the Black Sea resort of Sochi on September 29, where the leaders will concentrate on the situation in Syria.

Russia is the main ally of the Syrian government while Turkey supports groups that have fought to unseat President Bashar Assad.

However, Russian and Turkish troops have cooperated in Idlib, the final holdout of rebel forces, and in seeking a political solution in the war-torn country. AP

Won't go back on deal with Moscow: Erdogan

New York: Turkish president Recep Erdogan on Friday said his country won't go back on a deal to purchase Russian air defence systems. "For us the S-400 affair is done. It is not possible to go back on that. The United States must understand. We, Turkey, are honest, but unfortunately the United States were not and are not." Erdogan said that Ankara would go "knocking on other doors" and that "Turkey purchases what it needs for its defence." Turkey agreed a multi-billion-dollar purchase of the S-400 Russian-made air defence system, angering the United State

India cross as British MPs table motion on Kashmir

LONDON

MEMBERS of Parliament from the UK's All Party Parliamentary Group (APPG) on Kashmir have tabled a motion on 'Human rights in Kashmir' for a debate in the House of Commons, drawing a strong reaction from India.

The Minister for Asia in the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office (FCDO), Amanda Milling, responded to the debate on Thursday by reiterating the UK government's unchanged stance on Kashmir as a bilateral issue.

"The government takes the situation in Kashmir very seriously but it's for India and Pakistan to find a lasting political solution, taking into account the wishes of the Kashmiri people. It's not for the UK to prescribe a solution or to act as a mediator," said Milling.

The Indian government expressed its dismay at some of the language used by participating MPs in the Backbench Debate, specifically Pakistani-origin Labour MP Naz Shah.

A minister from the Indian High Commission in London condemned the attack on Prime Minister Narendra Modi and highlighted Kashmir's status as an integral part of India.

"It is with sadness that the High Commission of India notes that an august institution of a fellow democracy has been misused today to level abuse against the elected leader of the largest practising democracy in the world," the minister said, referring to Shah's remarks on the 2002 Gujarat riots.

"As on previous occasions, the High Commission of India reiterates that any assertion made in any forum on a subject related to an integral part of India needs to be duly substantiated with authentic verifiable facts," the minister added.

Nuclear talks to resume very soon, says Iranian FM

UNITED NATIONS

IRAN'S foreign minister said on Friday that stalled talks on the Iranian nuclear accord would resume "very soon" but accused the United States of sending "contradictory measures" on reviving the deal.

The talks, brokered by the Europeans, seek the return of the United States to the 2015 agreement trashed by former president Donald Trump -- as well as Iran's return to full compliance.

"We are reviewing the Vienna negotiations files currently and very soon Iran's negotiations with the four plus one countries will recommence," Hossein Amir-Abdollahian told reporters in New York, referring to Britain, France, Russia, China and Germany.

"We see a constructive type of negotiation that will lead to tangible verifiable results in the foreign policy of the new government in Iran," the foreign minister added during a press conference.

Asked what Amir-Abdollahian meant by "very soon," a senior Iranian official said on condition of anonymity that "it can mean a few days, it can mean a few weeks."

"As soon as we finish the review process, without any time to be wasted, we shall return to the negotiations table," the official said.

European nations are trying to kick start the deal, known as the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action, that Trump pulled America out of in 2018. He reinstated sanctions on Iran that Washington had lifted as part of the agreement.

Since then, Tehran has also retreated from many of its commitments. Joe Biden has indicated he wants to return to the deal, but his administration has expressed impatience at the stalled talks. AFP

Working to address the post-war issues: FM

Sri Lankan Foreign Minister G L Peiris has told his Indian counterpart S Jaishankar that his country is working to address the post-ethnic war issues, including releasing LTTE prisoners and revisiting a controversial anti-terror law. The two leaders met on Thursday on the sidelines of the UN General Assembly session. During the meeting, Jaishankar indicated the need for a fair and just resolution of residual issues in the aftermath of the ethnic issues is in the interest of both countries, the Sri Lankan Foreign Ministry said. However, the Indian Foreign Minister indicated that Indo-Lankan relations should not be limited to a single issue. Peiris conveyed to Jaishankar about the pragmatic and tangible action taken by Lanka to resolve residual matters after the end of the conflict in May 2009.

Thousands of migrants under forced lockdown

Thousands of migrant workers in Singapore are still living under strict Covid lockdowns centered around the dormitories where they live. Nearly 3,00,000 migrant workers are banned from mixing with the general public. Many have begun speaking out against the discriminatory restrictions. "When I see everybody outside, looking happy, it's very painful for me," a migrant told BBC. Migrant workers from India are also among those confined to their living spaces. "Are we not human?" asked a migrant.

Massive power outage amid grid failure

A power blackout briefly hit Myanmar's main urban centres and far-flung towns on Friday, including commercial hub Yangon and parts of the capital Naypyidaw, authorities said. Yangon Electricity Supply Corporation reported a "temporary power outage in Yangon region today at 13.35", adding that it was working to restore power. Myanmar's second-biggest city of Mandalay, the eastern town of Hpa-an, southern Mon state and parts of Rakhine state in the west also lost power, residents told AFP. Parts of the military-built capital Naypyidaw also experienced outages. By 2.10 pm power had been restored. Local media reported an official from Naypyidaw's Electricity Department as saying the national grid had suffered a "system breakdown", without elaborating

Will bring back harsh punishments: Taliban

KABUL

ONE of the founders of the Taliban and the chief enforcer of its harsh interpretation of Islamic law when they last ruled Afghanistan said the hard-line movement will once again carry out executions and amputations of hands, though perhaps not in public.

In an interview with The Associated Press, Mullah Nooruddin Turabi dismissed outrage over the Taliban's executions in the past, which sometimes took place in front of crowds at a stadium, and he warned the world against interfering with Afghanistan's new rulers.

"Everyone criticised us for the punishments in the stadium, but we have never said anything about their laws and their punishments," Turabi told The Associated Press, speaking in Kabul. "No one will tell us what our laws should be. We will follow Islam and we will make our laws on the Quran."

Since the Taliban overran Kabul on August 15 and seized control of the country, Afghans and the world have been watching to see whether they will recreate their harsh rule of the late 1990s. Turabi's comments pointed to how the group's leaders remain entrenched in a deeply conservative, hard-line worldview, even if they are embracing technological changes, like video and mobile phones.

"Cutting off of hands is very necessary for security," he said, saying it had a deterrent effect.

He said the Cabinet was studying whether to do punishments in public and will "develop a policy."

"We are changed from the past," he said. He said now the Taliban would allow television, mobile phones, photos and video "because this is the necessity of the people, and we are serious about it." He suggested that the Taliban saw the media as a way to spread their message. AP

N Korea proposes talks, wants South to end hostility

SEOUL

KIM Jong Un's powerful sister says North Korea is willing to resume talks with South Korea if it doesn't provoke the North with hostile policies and double standards.

Kim Yo Jong made the comments Friday in response to South Korean President Moon Jae-in's renewed calls for a declaration to end the 1950-53 Korean War this week.

She says it was "admirable" of the South to propose a formal end to the Korean War but demanded Seoul first drop its "hostile policies" towards Pyongyang. She says an end-of-the war declaration can be adopted when the Koreas lift hostile policies and unfair double standards and biased views toward each other.

"For the termination of the war to be declared, respect for each other should be maintained and prejudiced viewpoint, inveterate hostile policy and unequal double standards must be removed first," she said. She says North Korea is willing to hold 'constructive discussions' with South Korea on repairing and improving ties under such conditions.

> Kim Yo Jong, North Korean leader's sister

Her statement came days after the North performed its first missile tests in six months amid a long-stalled nuclear diplomacy with the US.

Pyongyang has previously has said US-South Korean military exercises and US-led sanctions are examples of hostile policies against Pyongyang.

North Korea carried out two missile firings this month alone, one involving a long-range cruise missile and the other short-range ballistic missiles.

Communications between the North and South have largely been cut in the aftermath of a second US-North summit in Hanoi in 2019 as then-president Donald Trump and Kim couldn't agree on the terms of an agreement. AP

AUS INCHES CLOSER TO LIFTING LOCKDOWNS

SYDNEY

AUSTRALIA'S two largest cities are moving closer to ending lockdowns as vaccination rates climb, but leaders are warning that people should remain cautious with their newfound freedoms and that coronavirus case numbers will inevitably rise.

In New South Wales state, where an outbreak continues to grow in Sydney, Premier Gladys Berejiklian has set a target of reopening on October 11 once vaccination milestones are reached.

But she said Friday it would need to be done "with a degree of caution and responsibility" because otherwise too many people would end up in hospitals. Meanwhile in Victoria State, where there is an outbreak in Melbourne,

Health Minister Martin Foley said there had been a "tremendous" increase in vaccinations and there was "no shortage of enthusiasm" among people wanting to get jabs.

Health officials in New South Wales reported 1,043 new cases and 11 deaths on Friday, while officials in Victoria reported 733 new cases and one death.

Meanwhile, the coronavirus pandemic continued to slow down for a fourth week in a row around the world (see graphic). The US remained by far the country with the biggest number of new cases, with 126,000 per day on an average this week. AP

Pandemic slows for 4th week in row

The pandemic continued to slow down for a fourth week in a row around the world

CASES FALL BY 8%

The number of new daily cases dropped globally by eight per cent last week to 5,10,000, according to an AFP tally till Thursday

IMPROVEMENT ALMOST EVERYWHERE

The situation improved in many regions of the world, with 32 per cent fewer cases in Africa, 25 per cent fewer in the United States and Canada, 21 per cent fewer in the West Asia. Cases were down seven per cent in Asia and two per cent in Oceania.

But the situation deteriorated in Latin America and the Caribbean, with a 33 per cent increase, largely due to a catch-up in figures in Brazil, and with a slight four percent increase in Europe

BIGGEST DROPS

At the other end of the spectrum, Botswana saw 51 per cent fewer cases this week, followed by Japan (50% less) and Sri Lanka (43% down)

U.S. HAS MOST INFECTIONS

The US remained by far the country with the biggest number of new cases, with 126,000 per day, nevertheless that is a decrease of 26 percent. Next worst was the UK with 32,400 cases, a 10 percent increase

MOST DEATHS TOO IN U.S.

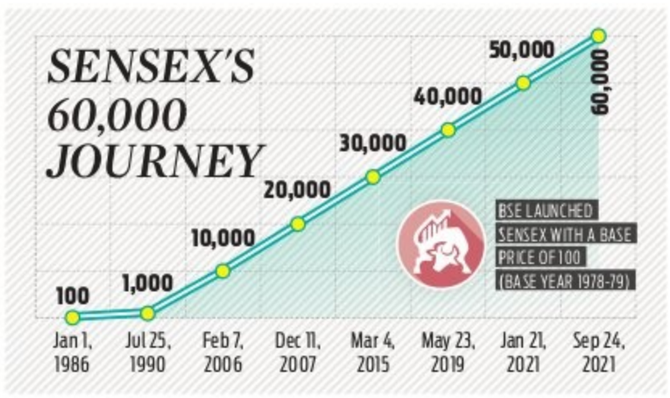
Surges 10,000 points in quickest interval of 8 months; Nifty too at its new peak of 17,853

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

IN a span of just 8 months, equity benchmark index — the BSE Sensex has surged from 50,000-mark to 60,000-mark. This is the quickest interval when Sensex had added 10,000 points, beating the previous records when the index had climbed from 10,000 to 20,000-mark and 40,000 to 50,000-mark in 20 months (each time).

After adding over 950 points on Thursday, the 30-share index jumped 163 points to close at its fresh peak of 60,048 on Friday — a first in its 31 year journey. Sensex had crossed the 50,000-mark on January 21. The NSE Nifty on Thursday settled 30 points higher at new record of 17,853. The rally, according to experts, has come on the back of factors such as improved corporate earnings, participation of retail investors, favourable global cues and slowing down of Covid cases.



"The rally in domestic market is driven by positive global cues, strong inflows by FIIs/DIIs, good corporate earnings, falling Covid-19 cases, upbeat corporate commentaries and low cost of capital," said Motilal Oswal, MD & CEO, Motilal Oswal Financial Services.

He added, "Given rich valuations, one cannot ignore intermittent volatility. However, we expect the positive momentum to continue on the back of improving economic activity and corporate earnings."

Equity indices have been moving up since the massive slump of March 2020 when Covid-19 wrecked havoc on the economies across the globe. From the level of 25,000 when lockdown measures were first announced, the sensex has bounced back to 60,000 level.

However, experts have advised investors to remain cautious. Piyush Garg, CIO - ICICI Securities, expects 10-15% correction from current level.

"Rising inflation risk and hence withdrawal of ultra-easy monetary policy by global central banks (mainly Federal Reserve) may trigger a sharp rise in bond yields which can cause risk assets to correct sharply. Hence one can remain invested with a vigilant eye on the move in yields world over," said Garg.

Finmin lifts spending curbs to boost economic recovery

ANURADHA SHUKLA @ New Delhi

AFTER better than expected tax revenue and with signs of improving economy, the government has decided to loosen its purse strings and remove the expenditure curb on various ministries and departments with immediate effect, which it had placed due to Covid.

On June 30, the ministry had issued guidelines for putting curbs on 82 out of 101 demands for grants related to various central ministries and departments for a three-month period starting July 1. Barring some key sectors including health, agriculture, fertilisers, pharmaceuticals and food, it had asked the rest to restrict expenses up to 20% of their annual budgetary allocation in the September quarter. This was done as part of austerity measures amid the pandemic.

According to an office memorandum issued by the Economic Affairs Department of the Finance Ministry on Friday, the circular now stands withdrawn with immediate effect.

"Accordingly, all ministries/departments are now permitted to spend as per their own approved monthly expenditure plan/quarterly expenditure plan, during the remaining part of the financial year," the memorandum said.

It said the instructions related to regulating bulk item of expenditure (equal to or more than ₹200 crore) are relaxed for those pertaining to budgeted capital expenditure for the remaining part of this fiscal.

The move comes almost a week after Prime Minister Narendra Modi met secretaries on September 18 and asked them to speed-up capital expenditure and ensure that government schemes are implemented to their full extent.

"We are now at a comfortable state. The PMO had already asked to relax the austerity drive. Going forward, we will be fiscally at a comfortable position than what we had thought," a senior finance ministry official added.

According to data for the April-July period, the total government expenditure was just 29% of the Budget estimate. This move will boost expenditure and will further spur demand, ahead of the festive seasons.

Officials say that better net tax collection also helped in relaxing the curbs.

"The figures of direct tax collections for the Financial Year 2021-22, as on 22.09.2021 show that net collections are at ₹5,70,568 crore, compared to ₹3,27,174 crore in the corresponding period of the preceding Financial Year i.e FY 2020-21, representing an increase of 74.4%," finance ministry said in a statement on Friday.

The net collection is up by 27% over FY 2019-20, pre Covid period.

Economy on sustained path of revival, says finance minister

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

FINANCE Minister Nirmala Sitharaman on Friday said that Indian economy is on a sustained path of revival and cited rise in GST collections and direct taxes and zooming stock market to support her confidence.

"I can see very clearly signs of revival and good signs of revival. Otherwise my revenue collection would not be where it is, both the GST and direct taxation," said Sitharaman. She was on a visit to Haryana to attend a party function.

Direct tax collection till September 22 is up by 74% over last year, as per the data released by the revenue department on Friday. "These are not small indicators, these are not some sporadic indicators. They clearly show that the economy is on a sustained path of revival," she said. She also cited the stock market boom to further buttress her claims.

"Today retail and small investors are taking keen interest in the stock market and investing in it. Earlier, retail investors were participating through mutual funds".

PSBs hire just 400 in FY21, but private banks add 17,000 employees

SUNITHA NATTI @ Hyderabad

HIRING at Indian banks, one of the country's largest employers, has come to a disappointing halt. Public Sector Banks (PSBs), having the largest employee base among all commercial banks in the country, hired as fewer as 400 employees in FY21, according to the RBI's latest Basic Statistical Returns of commercial banks released last week. This is perhaps the lowest net addition ever in the Indian banking history.

Still, that fares better than FY20, when state-run banks some of which were placed under the RBI's prompt corrective action, downsized staff by about 38,000. From employing over 8 lakh in FY19, the total workforce was down to 7.7 lakh in FY20 and remained flat in FY21. Much of the trimming happened at semi-urban and urban branches, while rural and metropolitan areas saw a modest increase in workforce. One of the reasons for the decline was also due to rationalisation of branches following the bank mergers.

In its biggest consolidation exercise, 10 state-run banks were merged into four last year. Prior to this, five associate banks were subsumed into SBI, while Vijaya Bank and Dena Bank were merged with Bank of Baroda. Another troublesome lender IDBI Bank was taken over by LIC. Effectively, the total number of PSBs is down to 12 from 27 in 2017.

On the other hand, private and small finance banks made up for the shortfall in hiring both in FY20 and FY21. While they together added nearly 1 lakh employees in FY20, the pace of hiring slowed down dramatically during the Covid-hit FY21 when they brought in just about 50,000 newer employees on board. While private banks hired over 78,000 in FY20, the number of new additions fell to 17,000 in FY21. Similarly, small finance banks, which added 40,000 jobs in FY19, managed to hire just about 9,000 in FY21. As on March 2021, the banking industry, including foreign and regional rural banks, employ over 15.6 lakh across the country.

With PSBs undergoing the consolidation drive, and amid talks of privatisation and rationalising operations, the Indian banking industry's hiring grew by a dismal 1.8% in FY21, again perhaps the lowest pace ever recorded. Banks hired about 27,000 last fiscal against 80,000-odd jobs added in FY20.

SJVN bags 1,000 MW solar power project

New Delhi: State-run SJVN on Friday said it has won 1,000 MW grid-connected solar project worth ₹5,500 crore in a bidding conducted by Indian Renewable Energy Development Agency Ltd (IREDA). "SJVN bagged 1,000 MW Grid connected Solar PV Power Project through Request for Proposal (RFP) floated by Indian Renewable Energy Development Agency Limited (IREDA)," a company statement said.

RBI's Master Direction on loan transfer

New Delhi: The Reserve Bank on Friday issued Master Direction on loan transfer, requiring banks and other lending institutions to have a comprehensive board-approved policy. Loan transfers are resorted to by lending institutions for liquidity management, rebalancing their exposures or strategic sales. Also, a robust secondary market in loans will help in creating additional avenues for raising liquidity, the RBI said.

Concern over NHAI debt unwarranted: Chairman Aramane

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

THE chairman of National Highway Authority of India (NHAI) has refuted the doubts over sustainability of the mounting debt taken by the government agency entrusted with building roads and highways.

Chairman Giridhar Aramane, who is also the secretary in the Ministry of Road Transport and Highway (MoRTH), says the doubts over NHAI's debt is a bogey created by some vested interest.

"We typically take up roads which are commercially viable, where the cost of funds is less than the internal rate of return (IRR) of new projects. 80% of the projects taken up by NHAI are like that where the rate of return is more than the cost of funds," says Aramane while talking to The New Indian Express. He says there is no question of the unsustainability of the debt taken by NHAI. However, he emphasises that NHAI must maintain its policy of taking up only those projects which are commercially viable.

"Typically, NHAI looks for an IRR of 6.5-8%, if that (condition) is satisfied, we will go ahead with the project," says the chairman.

NHAI's debt had reached ₹3.07 lakh crore on March 31, 2021, up 23% from ₹2.49 lakh crore a year ago, Minister of Road Transport and Highway Nitin Gadkari had informed the parliament. NHAI's debt has increased four-fold in the last 4 years from ₹75,000 crore on March 31, 2017. It paid ₹18,840 crore as interest in 2020-21.

Aramane, however, says that the highway authority does take up road projects which may not be commercially viable on their own but have potential for high economic returns.

"Suppose the economic return of the road is 25%, and the internal rate of return is 7-8%, then some of such roads should be taken up by NHAI," Aramane says.

We typically take up roads which are commercially viable, where the cost of funds is less than the internal rate of return (IRR) of new projects —Giridhar Aramane, Chairman, NHAI

CCI slaps ₹870-cr penalty on Carlsberg, UBL, others for beer sales cartelisation

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE Competition Commission of India (CCI), the anti-trust regulator, has imposed a penalty of ₹870 crore on beer manufacturers – United Breweries, SABMiller and Carlsberg India – for indulging in cartelisation in the sale and supply of beer in various states and Union Territories in India, including through the platform of All India Brewers' Association (AIBA).

The CCI has found that the three companies engaged in price co-ordination in contravention of the provisions of the Competition Act in Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Maharashtra, Odisha, Rajasthan, West Bengal, National Capital Territory of Delhi and the Union Territory of Puducherry. The CCI also found that these companies were also collectively restricting supply of beer in Maharashtra, Odisha and West Bengal. It found that the three were coordinating with respect to supply of beer to premium institutions in the city of Bengaluru in contravention of the provisions of the Competition Act.

The anti-trust regulator also found co-ordination between UBL and AB InBev with respect to purchase of second-hand bottles. AIBA was found to be actively involved in facilitating such cartelisation. The period of cartel was held to be from 2009 to at least October 2018.

Four individuals of UBL, 4 individuals of AB InBev, 6 individuals of CIPL and the Director General of AIBA, were held by CCI to be liable for the anti-competitive conduct of their respective companies/ association.

MALAYSIA'S CENTRAL BANK LAUNCHES NEW ARR

Malaysia's central bank Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM) has introduced an alternative interbank benchmark rate – the Malaysia Overnight Rate (MYOR) as the new alternative reference rate (ARR) – that will offer market participants more flexibility and hedging options. Globally, the ARRs are being introduced to improve the integrity of financial benchmark rates as part of a transition to transaction-based rates, in line with the London Interbank Offered Rate reforms after the global financial crisis. The ARRs facilitate the usage of benchmark rates that are more robust and "based upon transactions in active, liquid markets." In Malaysia, the MYOR will run in parallel to the existing Kuala Lumpur Interbank Offered Rate (KLIBOR) with periodic reviews to ensure that the financial benchmark rates remain robust and reflective of an active underlying market. The offering of MYOR-based products would provide a wider array of hedging instruments that would support additional risk management strategies. The MYOR would be administered and calculated by the central bank as the volume-weighted average rate of unsecured overnight ringgit interbank transactions, including BNM's overnight monetary operations.

SOUTH KOREA

S KOREA CENTRAL BANK SEES FINANCIAL STABILITY WOES

South Korea's central bank warned that the debt repayment burden among vulnerable households could increase sharply as interest rates rise, underlining the growing negative impact of the debt binge in Asia's fourth largest economy. Debt-to-disposable income at South Korean households was at 172.4% in the second quarter, up 10.1 percentage point from a year earlier, the BOK said in a regular report on financial stability. The bank said the increase was a concern as household income for many dwindle amid social distancing curbs in place to fight Covid-19. South Korea has put in place curbs including limited operating hours for cafes and restaurants and on the number of people allowed at social gatherings, hurting those in the hospitality sector. The Bank of Korea raised its policy rate by 25 bps to 0.75% in August, the first hike in almost three years and the first major Asian central bank to shift away from pandemic-era monetary stimulus. Koreans have been borrowing more than ever before, and policymakers are increasingly worried the debt pile could become unsustainable as rates rise, hurting people's purchasing power and long-term growth.

TAIWAN

TAIWAN EXPORT ORDERS FALL SHORT OF FORECAST

Taiwan's export orders grew less than forecast in August on unexpectedly weaker demand for new smartphones, though the government said the demand outlook for the island's tech goods remains good. Export orders jumped a mere 17.6% from August 2020 to just $53.5 billion, new data from the Ministry of Economic Affairs showed on Friday. Although the increase marks the 18th continuous month of export expansion for Taiwan, the pace of growth was slower than the median forecast from a Reuters poll, which anticipated growth of 20.7%. Huang Yu-ling, head of the ministry's statistics department, said soft demand was due to an easing of the pandemic lockdowns. Taiwan's export figures are often viewed by analysts as a bellwether for global demand in the hi-tech sector. Taiwan's manufacturers have been long-time component suppliers for the devices of big tech brands, like Apple. Turning toward the future, Taiwan's economic affairs ministry warned Covid-19 cases may well pick up globally ahead of winter, and rumors of new virus variants will add uncertainty to the economic environment. However, more consumer electronic products will hit the market, which, along with soaring demand for e-vehicles, will bolster Taiwan's export orders.

SPEED UP GST EVASION PROBE: CBIC TO TAXMEN

New Delhi: The Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) has asked its officials to speed up investigation in GST evasion and close the case within one year. "The respective Pr. Chief Commissioners/Chief Commissioners may draw an action plan so that no case is pending investigation beyond one year. Needless to mention that once SCN (show cause notice) is issued, timely adjudication must follow," the CBIC instruction said. In an instruction to field formations, the Central Board of Indirect Taxes has also asked GST officers to speed up investigation and issue show-cause notices in evasion cases, so that enough time is left with adjudicating authority to pass orders.

Ford India head quits; Radhakrishnan appointed new transformation officer

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

FORD Motor's India head Anurag Mehrotra is leaving the company to pursue other career opportunities. According to Reuters, September 30 will be Mehrotra's last day. His exit from Ford comes days after the US carmaker had announced it would stop manufacturing cars in India.

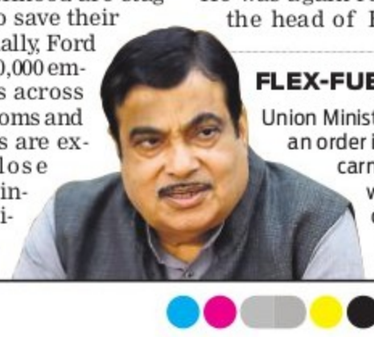
At present, Ford is facing heat from its workers and dealers. Majority of 4,000 Ford workers who are expected to lose their livelihood are staging protests to save their jobs. Additionally, Ford accounts for 40,000 employment loss across dealer showrooms and its 170 dealers are expected to lose ₹2,000 crore investment, estimated FADA.

Ford informed that Balasundaram Radhakrishnan, currently director, Manufacturing, has been appointed to the role of transformation officer, FIPL (Ford India Pvt Ltd). Radhakrishnan will oversee and drive the transformation efforts in India.

Mehrotra has been associated with Ford for over a decade. In May 2017, he was elevated from the past of Executive Director, Marketing, Sales & Service to Managing Director for Ford's Indian subsidiary. He was again reappointed as the head of Ford India in February this year, weeks after the proposed joint venture between Ford and Mahindra & Mahindra was called off.

On September 9, Ford had said it will stop manufacturing vehicles in India due to accumulating losses, pegged at $2 billion. With this, Ford becomes the second American carmaker, after General Motors, to exit Indian market in recent years.

Ford said it took these restructuring actions after investigating several options including partnerships and contract manufacturing.



FLEX-FUEL ENGINES IN 3-4 MONTHS

Union Minister Nitin Gadkari said on Friday that he would issue an order in the next 3-4 months making it mandatory for the carmakers to introduce flex-fuel engines in vehicles. "I would like to stop the petrol and diesel use in the country in my lifetime and our farmers can give the alternative to this in the form of ethanol," he said.

Pressure on Koeman increases as Barcelona are held again

Barcelona made it three games without a victory as a goalless draw with Cadiz further weakened Ronald Koeman's position as coach. Frenkie de Jong was sent off in the 65th minute at the Ramon de Carranza stadium but holding on for a draw will earn little credit for Koeman, who was also shown a red card in injury-time.

India women lose to Oz after last-over drama

ASHIM SUNAM @ Bengaluru

BIG players, irrespective of the sport, have cracked under pressure in the past. And on Friday, it was India pacer Jhulan Goswami, who suffered the same fate in the final over where Australia needed 13 runs to win the second ODI at Mackay. The pacer bowled two no balls — both high waist full tosses. The second one proved to be costly when the home team required three runs of the final ball.

Off the original final ball, Goswami had Nicola Carey caught at mid-wicket. India had thought they had won the match by two runs only for the video umpire to rule it as a no-ball. The rejoiocing Indian players had their celebrations cut short in the rudest of fashions. It was a close call and the decision could have gone either way. It also meant Australia had to score two runs in what was the eighth ball of the over, and Carey scampered for a couple to break Indian hearts as Meg Lanning and C.o won the match by five wickets, stretching their streak to 26 matches. They have now won the series 2-0 with the third and final ODI to be played on Sunday.

"We have not seen the ball (second no-ball of the final over) yet. As a team we were on the field. On the field it is very hard to judge if the ball is waist high no ball or not... Definitely we will have a look at it, but those things, when it goes in your favour, you are very happy. I wouldn't add up to the controversy about anything as I have not seen the ball yet," said Smriti Mandhana.

In fact, after the completion of the 49th over, some of the players were involved in a serious discussion as to who should be given the last over. They also had the option of giving the ball to the spinners, but with it being the deciding over, they went ahead with the experience of Goswami, but it did not work as planned. "We were discussing whether we should go for spin or we should go with Jhulan with the last over," said Mandhana.

Brief scores: India women 274/7 in 50 ovs (S Mandhana 86, R Ghosh 44) lost to Australia women (B Mooney 125 n.o., T McGrath 74).

Tennis players hit by Covid, some on verge of career switch

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @ Chennai

IT'S been a harsh 18 months or so for India's tennis players ranked outside the top 300 or so. While the ones ranked inside the top 300 — Prajnesh Gunneswaran, Sumit Nagal and Ramkumar Ramanathan — have managed to play tournaments because of their rankings, the ones who depend on the ITF World Tour meets to pick up rankings points have struggled for a variety of reasons.

Covid-19-related quarantine norms, visa issues, travel costs during a pandemic and a lack of events in India have hit them hard. As tennis players are typically 'freelancers', in that they do not have annual retainership and make money only when they play, the lifestyle over the last 18 months or so has hit them hard. Take for example the case of Sidharth Rawat, India's No 1 ITF-ranked player at 213. He's close to giving up tennis as a profession. Without a European visa, the last event he played was in the US in August. His next big test is a fair reflection of where his mind is at it. "I started studying for my UPSC exam just as the lockdown started," he tells this daily. "In fact, my exam is on October 10." He won't play again till a hat-trick of ITF events in India in November. There are three M15 events in Indore (Nov 8-14), New Delhi (Nov 15-21) and Gurugram (Nov 22-28). Even if Rawat wants to continue plugging away at least for the time being, a few of his compatriots on tour have already decided to to give up the ghost. "I know a few of my friends who have decided to discontinue or have already discontinued and have left to pursue Masters abroad. People who have ATP ranking points have taken this decision but that's just the reality of the situation."

Here's a small sample size of how badly the pandemic and costs of travel in the pandemic era upended their lives. Arjun Kadhe, the third best Indian on the ITF tour according to rankings, played 22 events on the circuit in 2019.

This year? Six, thanks to the second lockdown earlier this year. In Europe finally after spending the entirety of the summer in India thanks to the lockdown, he will look to better his rankings.

SRH VS PBKS

Sinking feeling

One win from eight matches. It tells you how bad Hyderabad have been. They have changed captains, yet fortunes don't seem to change for Hyderabad. In Jonny Bairstow's absence, David Warner's indifferent form with the bat hasn't helped them, and it has put too much onus on the middle-order, which lacks a consistent performer.

Work in progress

They have found ways to lose matches right through the season and it continues in UAE leg too. They had no business to lose the previous match against Rajasthan and with the race for the play-offs heating up, squandering points like this could come back to bite them. Time has come for the middle-order to take a lot more responsibility.

VENKATA KRISHNA B @ Chennai

AFTER the sandstorm delayed the start of the match by 15 minutes, Virat Kohli and Devdutt Padikkal ensured it carried on in the middle. The orange skyline in Sharjah was further ignited by the right-left combination and it was Royal Challengers Bangalore who looked red-hot. However, by the time darkness engulfed, it was Chennai Super Kings, who took charge and ensured the night belonged to them as they inched closer to play-offs courtesy a six-wicket win on Friday.

The end scoreline will not suggest so, but half-way through the first innings, it appeared only Bangalore had turned up. Chennai were not even in the picture as Bangalore had raced to 90/0 at the end of 10 overs. By then Kohli had 44 off 30 deliveries and Padikkal was on 43 off 30. The flattest of the three venues, in the 2020 edition, there were seven successful innings with totals of 200 and above as batsmen made most of the smaller boundaries.

For some strange reason, instead of carrying on with momentum, Bangalore decided to slow the tempo. Even before Bangalore could realise, those quiet deliveries were turning into sedate overs. As Bangalore gave space Ravindra Jadeja, Deepak Chahar, Dwayne Bravo and Shardul Thakur tightened the grip, giving away only 28 runs from overs 11-15 and removing Kohli (53). The next five overs took them 156-6, at least 20 short of par-total.

And Chennai got home without breaking much sweat.

Brief scores: RCB 156-6 in 20 ovs (Devdutt Padikkal 70, Virat Kohli 53, Dwayne Bravo 3/24) lost to CSK 157-4 (Ruturaj 38).

Delhi on a high

With arguably the strongest attack in the IPL, Delhi are showing why they continue to remain favourites to lift their maiden crown. The switch to the UAE isn't a problem for them thanks to an all-round attack that can deliver irrespective of the conditions.

Unpredictable Royals

Winning two matches on the trot has been Rajasthan's biggest challenge. But they must derive confidence from the heist they pulled off against Punjab and need to put their best foot forward against Delhi. While Evin Lewis and Liam Livingstone are around to give firepower with bat.

BFC ready for Army Green test

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

BENGALURU FC will be aiming to continue their solid run at the ongoing Durand Cup as they face Army Green in the quarterfinals in Kolkata on Saturday.

The Blues will head into the match confident after having played impressive football in the competition so far, but it is not going to be easy and BFC coach Naushad Moosa is expecting a physical game.

"We're expecting another physical game on Saturday, and since kick off is at 2 pm, the conditions are going to be even more challenging. The boys need to make sure they begin well and hold strong. We're not thinking about the semifinal or the final just yet. The most important game for us is the next one, and that's the quarterfinal against Army Green," said Moosa.

DAY'S DIARY

Award for film

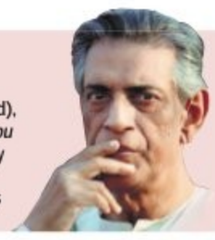
On this day in 1957, Aparajito, directed by Satyajit Ray became the first Indian film to win the Golden Lion and the Critics Award at the 18th Venice Film Festival

AWARDS GALORE

Aparajito, one of Ray's finest works, went on to win Golden Lion at Berlin and Cannes Film Fest too. It also received the Cinema Nuovo Award and the FIPRESCI Critics Award

REAL TO REEL

Aparjito (The Unvanquished), is the second film in The Apu Trilogy. Much of Apu's story here is actually based on Ray's personal experiences



FINDING FLAWS

Ray, who was attending the festival, was utterly flabbergasted as he felt that the film contained some serious flaws

The Mysore Imperial Service Regiment entering Israeli port city Haifa in 1914

A painting of the Mysore Lancers (right) and Jodhpur Lancers | RAJA CHANDRA URS

On the 103rd Haifa Day celebrations, The Mysore Lancers Heritage Foundation gives an account of the unsung warriors who defeated the Ottoman Empire in World War I

SANATH PRASAD

BULLOCK carts, dogs and horses...these were some of the 'weapons' that the Mysore Lancers possessed to fight against the Ottoman Empire. To highlight the significance and efforts of the Mysore Lance regiment in liberating Haifa, a port city in Israel from the invaders between 1914 and 1918, The Mysore Lance Heritage Foundation held a 'Wreath-laying Ceremony' on the 103rd anniversary of Haifa Day, on Thursday.

According to Udaya Raghunath Birje, great-grandson of Raghunatha Rao Birje, who served in the Mysore Lancers, it was only during the centenary celebrations in 2019, that the foundation started actively tracing the other descendants of the Mysore Lancers.

"The Mysore Lancers Haifa Memorial was built in JC Nagar during the pre-Independence era. Although we pass by it on an everyday basis, we hardly notice the 'Roll of Honour' etched on the memorial. We want to extensively spread the stories of valour and bravery of our forefathers and make this movement known among youngsters," says Birje, who has also submitted a memorandum to education minister BC Nagesh to include the contribution of the Mysore Lancers in WWI in history textbooks.

The story of the Mysore Lancers and their presence during the onset of World War I, dates back to over a century ago. According to Yashaswini Sharma, a noted historian and architect, the 15th Cavalry Brigade of the British Empire consisted of the Imperial Service Troops from the princely states of Hyderabad, Mysore, Patiala, Alwar and Jodhpur. They were asked to liberate Haifa, a port city in Israel from the Ottoman Empire. Their task at hand was to protect the Suez Canal in 1915, and liberate Haifa, Aleppo, Syria, Damascus, Tigris Aleppo from the Ottoman Empire, who fought with machine-made guns while they only used spades and spears.

As the story goes, despite fighting with bare minimum resources, it was the horses that came to their rescue. Horses being particularly good at mountain warfare, helped the soldiers at Mount Carmel, dodge the attacks of machine guns. This gave them a strategic advantage over the enemies.

According to a memorandum presented by the foundation, the Mysore Lancers included 29 officers, 444 non-commissioned officers with 528 horses, 49 mules and 132 followers. They were under the command of Chamaraj Urs Bahadur; and the then Maharaja of Mysore, Nalvadi Krishna Raja Wadiyar sent his brother-in-law, Col. J. Desaraj Urs, the chief commandant of the Mysore State Troops, as his personal representative.

PINEAPPLE PACHADI

INGREDIENTS

- Ripe pineapple: 1, medium sized
- Mustard seeds, Chilli powder: 1/2 tsp
- Turmeric powder, Cumin seeds: 1/4 tsp
- Green chilli: 1 ■ Salt to taste ■ Sugar: 2 tbsp
- Curry leaves: 2 sprigs ■ Dry red chilli: 2 (chopped) ■ Grated coconut: 1 cup
- Curd: 1/2 cup or according to the sourness of the curd
- Coconut oil: 1 tsp ■ Garlic: 4 cloves
- Ginger: 1 ■ Shallots: 5

METHOD

- Cook the cut pieces of pineapple by adding them in water, and 1 tsp of salt and sugar.
- Make a fine paste using grated coconut, garlic, green chillies, cumin, and mustard.
- After cooking pineapple for 20 minutes, crush them. Heat oil in a pan and then saute mustard, sliced shallots, dried chillies, and curry leaves.
- Add the fine paste and some salt to the crushed pineapple, let it cook in a medium flame.
- Mix the beaten curd, and stir it in low flame.

FIT BIT

PARSVA BHUJA DANDASANA

(SIDE ARM STICK POSE)

In Sanskrit, 'parsva' means side, 'bhuja' means arms, 'danda' means stick and 'asana' means pose. It is best suited for experienced yogis who have opened hips and strong core and shoulders. It requires patience and time to master. Achieving the pose can boost confidence and help yogis connect with their inner strength. It is also a cleansing pose. It can be particularly useful for developing mindfulness as entering and exiting the pose requires focus and control. It is associated with activating and balancing the Muladhara (root) chakra.

STEPS

- Come into Parivrtta Ardha Utkatasana (Half Chair Pose) in which your right leg is folded and placed on the left thigh.
- Make Namaste Mudra and slightly twist your torso to the right so that the right knee touches the heel of the right foot.
- Come on the balls of your left foot. Slowly place your palms shoulder-width apart, away from the body on the left side by maintaining a twist in your torso.
- Try to shift your weight on your arms by moving your shoulder forward so that the elbow can help maintain the pose.
- Here, your right foot is firm over your right elbow and slowly lift off the left foot as well.
- Keep your left foot straight in the direction of your left knee.
- Now, permit your thighs to be pushed against the hip joint in order to engage your hips.
- Maintain this pose for as long as you can and then slowly rest your left foot on the floor. Lift your right foot from the right elbow.
- Slowly bring your torso in the middle and lift off palms to return into the starting position. Relax.

BENEFITS

- This pose helps to calm the mind. It also improves mental focus.
- Regular practice strengthens the wrists, arms and shoulders.
- It also helps to improve core strength.
- It improves the overall sense of balance. If you practice regularly, it increases flexibility.
- It massages the abdominal organs.

LIMITATIONS

- If you suffer from back, hip, wrist, elbow or shoulder injuries, avoid this.
- Anyone with high or low blood pressure, and pregnant women must avoid this.

— by N Elumalai, PhD scholar (Yoga Science) at Meenakshi Academy of Higher Education & Research, Chennai

SATELLITE RIGHTS OF JAMES SOLD FOR A WHOPPING PRICE

The makers are yet to sell the digital rights of the action entertainer starring Puneeth Rajkumar and directed by Chethan Kumar

CE FEATURES

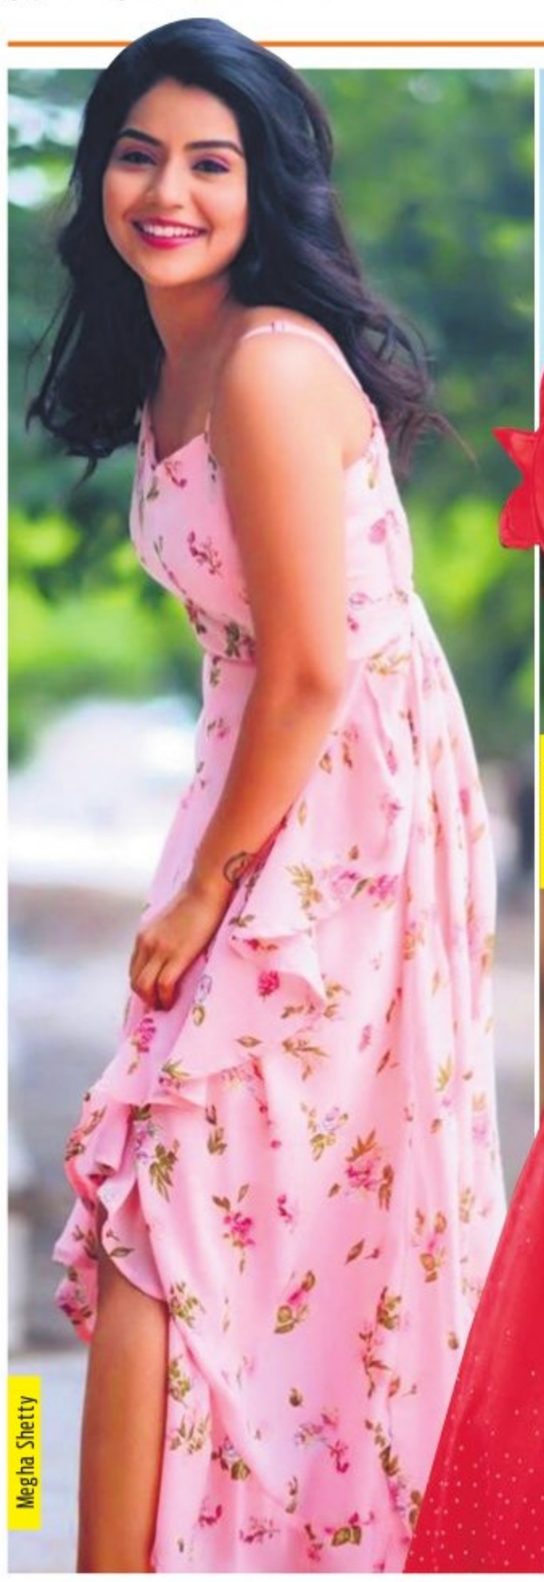
PUNEETH Rajkumar's James is one of the most expected films in Sandalwood. With the film still on floors, the action entertainer is already making all the right noises. The latest development from the project is that the satellite rights of the Chethan Kumar directorial have been sold at a whopping price. Star Suvarna has bagged the rights for a sum of ₹ 15 crore, which is being reported as the highest for a Puneeth film so far. In addition, James has generated a healthy buzz around the digital and Hindi dubbing rights too.

Bankrolled by Kishore Pathikonda, James is in the last phase of the shooting, and the makers are left with the filming of three more tracks. With music by Charan Raj and cinematography by J Swamy, James has an ensemble cast including the likes of Telugu actor Meka Srikanth, Adithya Menon, Anu Prabhakar, Rangayana Raghu and Mukesh Rishi.

Puneeth Rajkumar

Nishvika Naidu, Megha Shetty to star alongside Krishna in Shiva Tejass' directorial

The film's title will be officially announced on September 27



Megha Shetty

Nishvika Naidu

Krishna

CE FEATURES

ACTOR Krishna is collaborating with Shiva Tejass for a romantic drama, which is expected to go on floors on October 4. Bankrolled by Sumanth Kranthi, the title of the film will be officially revealed on September 27. The team is currently working on the casting process, and our sources revealed that the film will star Nishvika Naidu and Megha Shetty as the leads opposite the Love Mocktail hero.

Nishvika Naidu, who was last seen in Gentleman, is currently part of Ganesh's Sakath and Sharan's Guru Shishyaru. This project will be the actor's next, and it will mark Nishvika's maiden collaboration with Krishna. This will be the second feature film for Megha Shetty, who is currently the toast of the small screen with her role in Jothe Jotheyalli. She will make her debut with Ganesh's Tribble Riding.

The yet-to-be-titled project also stars Rangayana Raghu, Sadhu Kokila, Tabla Nani, Giri, and Aruna Balaraj in pivotal roles. With music by Arjun Janya and cinematography by Shekar Chandra, the project, written by Shiva Tejass, will be made under the banner of Rashmi Films.

Krishna, who has a handful of films up his sleeve, has completed shooting for his second directorial, Love Mocktail 2, and is looking forward to the release of Shrikrishna@gmail.com. He also has Mr. Bachelor, Lucky Man, Love Me or Hate Me, and a project with director PC Shekar in different stages of production.

An effective and important look at excesses of power

PUKKSATTE LIFU

Cast: Sanchari Vijay, Achyuth Kumar, Rangayana Raghu, Mathangi Prasanna

Director: Aravind Kuplikar

A SHARADHAA

PUKKSATTE Lifu, Purusotte Ella loosely translates to 'everything in life comes free for you, but still, you are busy.' Though the title of this film doesn't have any direct relevance to the story, director Aravind Kuplikar does pick a bold and sensitive topic for his film. Through satirical humour and thoughtful narration, Aravind has highlighted the extent to which power can be misused.

With police officers at the centre of things, Aravind showcases the complexity of the system, and portrays how those in power are busy finding shortcuts to turn rich and how ultimately it is the innocent, who becomes the prey.

RATING 4/5

Byregowda (Achyuth Kumar) popularly known as Singham heads a station, and is always looking at means to make money. The plot is pushed forward by a loot, a greedy cop, and how the entire police force of this station gets involved. They intelligently take the help of a thief Vinay Mallya (Aravind Kuplikar), and a locksmith Shahjahan (Sanchari Vijay). The latter, who is living an ordinary life, gets entangled in the police net. Meanwhile, he also has a soft corner for Sharadha, (Mathangi Prasanna), a lawyer who has been a good friend. The happiness in Shahjahan's life is cut short when his brother Iqbal has to undergo an expensive medical procedure. As the plot progresses, the police turn their backs on Shahjahan, who is forced to pick an alternative route. What is that? Well, you must experience that on the big screen!

The director has done a pretty decent job of putting forth an important facet of the police department. Coming from a theatre background, and having associated with Suresha B and Prakash Raj as an assistant director, Aravinda comes across as a genuine filmmaker in his debut attempt.

Aravind expertly weaves a tight screenplay around the one-liner of MS Ramesh. Extra points for Aravind for maintaining authenticity in the narrative, and balancing the police story with a solid emotional drama heightened by the well-written dialogues.

The right kind of casting also helps in elevating the thriller. From Rangayana Raghu, and Achyuth Kumar to Sanchari Vijay and Mathangi, every actor, even those with just a dialogue here and an expression there delivers solid performances. Also... it was heartwarming to watch Sanchari Vijay once more on the silver screen.

Pukksatte Lifu, Purusotte Ella is also bolstered by the impressive work of the technical department. Right from the cinematography by Advaita Gurumurhty, music by Vasu Dixit and Poornachandra Tejaswi, and editing by Suresh Arumugam, every department has put their best foot forward to blend well with the theme of the story.

Pukksatte Lifu... definitely has a dynamic story to tell, and it is a must-watch film for every person to understand how common people become puppets in the hands of a corrupt system.

JUNGLE CRUISE

Cast: Dwayne Johnson, Emily Blunt, Jack Whitehall, Jesse Plemons

Director: Jaume Collet-Serra

A PREDICTABLE RIDE

BHUVANESH CHANDAR

AFTER Cinderella and Cruella, it's safe to say that the Disney film season is well and truly back, and now, we have its latest, a film based on a ride in its theme park. It's about a London botanist Dr Lily Houghton (Emily Blunt), who, along with her brother MacGregor (Jack Whitehall), embarks on an ambitious journey into the exotic Amazon forest in search of a mystical Tree of Life. If myths are to be believed, she knows, the quest will likely not be a smooth ride. But if a single petal from a flower can cure all illnesses in the world, the dangers may well be worth it, Lily reasons. The sister-brother duo hires Frank Wolff (Dwayne Johnson), a steamboat skipper, to help them get to the secret location.

RATING 2.5/5

It all sounds like the setup for a potentially exhilarating adventure. The set design is lavish and detailed, the special effects are great... A great adventure film seems like it's in the making. Jungle Cruise also seems to be paying tribute to, or borrowing, from some hit adventure films. The doctors stepping into the Amazon in search of a mythical something is a reminder of Anaconda: The Hunt for the Blood Orchid. Johnson's Frank, meanwhile, feels like a distant uncle of Jack Sparrow from Pirates of the Caribbean. Even the idea of the undead soldiers imprisoned by the forest feels like an echo of an earlier experience.

With such a film, you know that grisly threats will come by, issues will crop up among the group members, and an unlikely hero will emerge... These are all tropes of the genre, but the problem with this film is how it never delivers on its early promise of adrenaline rush. It never matches up to the excitement of the ride it's based on.

The performances of the lead characters aren't the problem though. As always, Dwayne Johnson steps up with his presence and witty humour to elevate some scenes. Jesse Plemons makes a mark as Prince Joachim, a German royal in search of the Tree of Life, and his subplot is a strength of this film. Emily Blunt excels too, and really makes you root for Lily, but sadly, she's without support from the writers of this film.

At best, Jungle Cruise serves as a dull reminder of the highs this genre can offer when executed well. It feels, after all, like a mishmash of Mummy, Pirates of the Caribbean, Anaconda, and the Indiana Jones films. However, the joys in this one aren't very many. Dwayne Johnson tries his best, but this time, for once, you don't really want to smell what he's cooking.

Nawazuddin, Sushmita's Aarya get Emmy nominations

CE FEATURES

Nawazuddin Siddiqui along with the Sushmita Sen-starrer show Aarya and Vir Das' comedy special For India have been nominated from India at the 2021 International Emmy Awards. Last year, Richie Mehta's Delhi Crime won the best drama series prize at the International Emmies.

Nawazuddin has been nominated in the best actor category for his performance in Serious Men. Directed by Sudhir Mishra, the 2020 film was an adaptation of Manu Joseph's satirical novel of the same name. Nawazuddin portrayed a Dalit man who presents his son as a genius to move up in life.

Aarya, a crime-drama show directed by Ram Madhvani, has been nominated in the best drama series category. The Disney+ Hotstar series is headlined by Sushmita Sen.

WORLD PHARMACISTS DAY
THE VITAL LINK

04 | SATURDAY 25.09.2021 | BENGALURU | A PRODUCT MARKETING INITIATIVE

Covid: A Game Changer for Pharmacy Education

DR. A. R. SHABARAYA

Trust is an essential component of human relationship and healthcare is no exception. Trust plays a significant role in making the patient's experience gain greater level of satisfaction with the line of treatment they receive. In this, the Pharmacists play an important and inseparable role along with the healthcare team.

World Pharmacists Day 2021 is being celebrated all over the world today with the theme "Pharmacy: Always trusted for your health".

World Pharmacists Day was designated on 25th September 2009 in Federation of International Pharmaceutical (FIP)-2009 Conference in Istanbul to commemorate their yeoman services, every year. The services and sacrifices made by Pharmacists along with other healthcare professionals have brought them to be frontline warriors against Covid.

BLENDED LEARNING

The pandemic has restricted movement of academic community, forcing Universities to implement blended learning, which saved the academic atmosphere according to the current situation.

Pharmacy institutions across the world, particularly in India, are made to face challenges that were not experienced earlier. They are striving hard to ensure quality-based curriculum during this unprecedented health crisis.

Pharmacy educators are experiencing new problems in delivering remote teaching, providing attractive placements, supporting isolated or displaced students and also communicating with faculty members and students effectively and in a planned manner. There are more than 4,000 pharmacy institutions in India training well-qualified manpower catering to the needs of institutions, industry and healthcare services.

Pharmacy education system has undergone many changes since its inception. When it was introduced, this course was a compendium of a few science subjects, elementary dispensing of medication techniques and therapeutic uses of official drugs.

During the last few decades, the concept of pharmacy profession has undergone a sea change. Old conventional science subjects have been replaced by clinical oriented, pharma industry targeted subjects in the curriculum.

In India, for a long time, pharmacy education concentrated on pharmaceutical formulation development and its large research has now started shifting towards clinical-oriented training, thereby relocating their position as an important link between physicians and other supporting healthcare personnel. Many clinical and hospital pharmacists have made significant contribution in their fight against Covid along with other healthcare personnel.

DEMAND FOR PHARMACISTS

The relevance of pharmacists during Covid have been recognised and well appreciated. This has opened another window of opportunity for recruitment in Government and private hospitals as clinical and hospital pharmacists. So, naturally, demand for pharmacists trained in clinical services, i.e Pharmacovigilance, Adverse drug reaction (ADR) monitoring and drug information services has increased.

ONLINE MODE

Utilising multiple academic benefits offered by software programmes, the academicians have started organising seminars, conferences and workshops through online mode.

Online mode of pharmacy education has many cost cutting benefits. Considering the vast academic information it offers, Srinivas College of Pharmacy, Mangalore in association with Indian Pharmaceutical Association's local branch, has taken initiation to organise virtual industrial tours of reputed pharmaceutical industries for the first time in India. These tours are highly useful and well received by the student pharmacists.

CONSERVATIVE STEPS

Covid pandemic has made many industrial houses to implement conservative steps, thereby saving considerable amounts of administrative expenses and manpower requirements. Academic institutions are no exception in this regard. Ultimately, Covid pandemic, whether it proves to be a bliss or bane for the Pharmacy academic community will be revealed with time.
